There are several kinds of drilling but the kind that makes the farm pay is the drilling which makes water available. There is no need of a dry farm. The task is not so great as you may think. I have had years of experience and understand the well business thoroughly.

WOMAN WIRES FROM LOTTED DISTRICT

American Missionary Tells of Danger That Surrounds Her in Turkey.
CONSTANTINOPLE, April 29.—The following telegram was received here today from Miss Rose Lambert, one of the besieged American women missionaries at Hadjin. It sets forth the danger surrounding Miss Lambert and her companions, who are quite alone. The messenger who first started with the message to the telegraph office was shot down on the way. The communication is dated Hadjin, April 26, and says:

"The rising against the Christians of Hadjin began nine days ago. The government sent troops to suppress the fighting between Mohammedans and Christians, but the men were not strong enough to numerically to restore order. Many are dead and wounded on both sides.

Desperadoes occupied the Armenian cloister five days ago and have been firing on the people without interruption since. The Armenian churches are now showing white flags, indicating that there will be no further resistance, yet the shooting and the plundering continue. Many shops have been robbed. The Armenian settlements and villages in the province have been burned and many persons killed.

"Hadjin is almost entirely without food and the animals in the city are dying of starvation. The provincial authorities have been appealed to both orally and in writing to send more troops to Hadjin, but thus far without result.

"The messenger who first started with this dispatch to the local telegraph office was killed on the way."

The American women at Hadjin are:
Miss Virginia A. Billings, of Kirtland, O.; Miss Emily E. Ritcher, of Chicago; Miss Lambert, who is a daughter of Bishop Lambert, and a Miss Baldwin. The two last-mentioned women were sent out by the Menonite Brethren in Christ, of Ohio.

Christian refugees by the thousands have massed at Hadjin, and for 11 days the town has been threatened by fanatical Mohammedan tribesmen whose camps completely encircle it.—Portland Telegram.
