NARROW ESCAPE.

Brakeman Catches Foot in Frog and Narrowly Escapes Death.

This morning about 5:30, Jim Shipman, a brakeman with Conductor Stacy, while running alongside the train and trying to lift an obstinate pin, caught his foot in a frog and fell. Mr. Shipman threw himself outward from the rail, and unfortunately for him, the journal box caught in the leg of his trousers and the sole of his shoe was torn off. Aside from being severely bruised and strained, the leg is all right, and Shipman will be laid up only temporarily. But the accident might just as easily have resulted in a frightful death.

ENTERTAINED MANY GUESTS

The Lyle Tuesday Musical, and the Neighborhood clubs received and entertained many guests in the I. O. O. F. hall, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Ivanhoe, president of the Neighborhood club greeted the guests, speaking in a touching and kindly way on "Memory," dwelling particularly on filling the mind with beautiful thoughts, making our memory a paradise, closing with Kipling's grand poem.

"When only the Master shall praise us, and only the Master shall blame, And no one shall work for money, and no one shall work for fame, But each for the joy of working and each for his separate star, Shall draw the thing as he sees it for the God of things as they are."

Mrs. Seriggins never sang more sweetly than at this time when she sang the story of a rose. Miss McDonald lent added charm to the solo by her expressive accompaniment. Agnita Miss Oliver delighted all her hearers with an unusually fine selection on the piano. Appreciation to the fullest extent was expressed by the ladies to the Misses Runa Bacon and Hilda Anthony, who came from their school work to entertain us with a well rendered piano duet. Mrs. E. C. Moore president of the Lyle Tuesday Musical, read a paper which was limitable both in composition and rendition. Professor Bragg in a few well chosen words congratulated the ladies on having two such substantial and influential organizations, he then introduced Col. C. E. S. Wood, whose remarks were interesting and well received. Mr. T. A. Rinehart spoke of the success of the Aster shows and the influence such an enterprise has for the more beautiful La Grande.

During the brief social that followed delicious refreshments were served. Much credit is due the ladies in charge for the splendid success of this part of the entertainment. At the punch bowls presided Mrs. Vurpillat and Mrs. Albert Hunter, assisted by Mrs. Robert Newlin, Mrs. Luther Dunn, Mrs. E. D. Selder, Mrs. Robert Smith and Mrs. Polack. The table lent its charm with its center piece of daffodils. Many expressed their appreciation of the privilege of attending a reception of such a highly pleasing and instructive character.
