IMBLER ITEMS.

Mr. Bach returned home today from the county seat.

Miss Nellie Calk of Summerville was an Imbler visitor today.

Mr. Chas. Skaggs the I. M. & S Co's wide awake clerk, left today for his home in the promised land. Charlie will return in about two weeks and resume his duties at his old stand.

Miss Buela Dewey is suffering from blood poison in the hand. She is improving, however, and her many friends wish to see her out soon.

Mr. I. R. Wade was confined to his home yesterday on account of a grippie. Irvin believes he will pull through all O. K. now, however.

The rain is making the farmer smile—And who deserves it more than he?

Mrs. Frank Blanchard, who has been ill with pneumonia is slowly on the mend.

Mrs. L. Billings has been quite sick for some time. She is improving in health at present. Dr. Lillie is attending physician.

"Grippe, Grippe, Grippe," is all the rage here.

Manager Iddings of the Imbler base ball team announced that the Elgin high school nine will meet our home players Sunday. Elgin stands a good chance for a win on account of the sickness of several of Imbler's stars, who will not be able to take their old place.

The baseball boys have the right idea for raising money. They are going to give a basket social, a short program and a dance Saturday night. A prize consisting of an elegant Japanese vase will be awarded by the Imbler pharmacy for the nicest basket. Everyone invited. The boys expect a large turnout.

North Powder People Entertain.

Mesdames John F. Shaw, W. J. Morrison and Robert Shaw, entertained about twelve ladies Thursday afternoon at dinner at the home of Mrs. Robert Shaw in honor of Deaconess Alice Knight and Mrs. Wm. Groves. Mrs. Knight has been in North Powder in the interest of the Episcopal church and will leave Friday morning for Elgin to hold services. Mrs. Groves has been a resident of North Powder for several years, but leaves Friday evening with Mr. Groves to make their home in Spokane.
