LAST HOME SEEKERS TO COME TONIGHT

Tonight's No. 5 will bring the last homeseekers to Oregon over the Union Pacific and the O. R. & N., according to Traveling Passenger Agent Jack O'Neill. The last tickets were sold in the east last Friday, and such being the case, the residue of the colonistic flow will pass through La Grande tonight.
Mr. O'Neill is authority, but not officially for the statement that the records established this year during the months of March and April are doubly large compared with the record of immigration of past years. One feature about the recently-ended season is that colonists bought tickets for the west at the very last minute of the colonist period. Power facilities in the local round house will likely readjust themselves soon, as today sees the end of colonist traffic, and the railroad crews too will be given a brief respite, between today and the time that the A-Y-P. excursions start.

Ball Tomorrow Night.
What promises to be the largest crowd attending a dance this year, is anticipated at the Carnival Ball tomorrow evening at the Elks' hall.
Heacock's eight piece orchestra will render their usual enchanting music, and this insures an unequalled good time.

An Ideal Cough Medicine.
"As an ideal cough medicine I regard Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in a class by itself," says Dr. R. A. Wiltshire, of Gwynneville, Ind. "I take great pleasure in testifying to the results of Chamberlain's Cough medicine. In fact, I know of no other preparation that meets so fully the expectations of the most exacting in cases of croup and coughs of children. It contains no opium, and is perfectly safe, pleasant and efficacious remedy for the ill it is intended." For sale by all good dealers.
