FAIR NOW CHIEF TOPIC OF THE DAY

The county purchasing a poor farm eliminates the idea of the county and citizens buying the fair grounds. The question now is, what is to be done towards having a county fair this year, and if so, what kind? If it is to be a repetition of the fairs of the past few years, it would be much better not to make any attempt whatever. For the past two or three years there have been two ideas discussed, one is to reorganize the fair on the present basis, only begin early in the season and enlist the farming interests and make them know that there is going to be a fair, and a fair that is worthy of the united support of the county. This will require the active efforts of an enthusiastic committee. It will require the offering of prizes sufficient to make it an object for the farmers to put their exhibition stock in shape and grow prize-winning produce. The races must not be the whole show.

The other idea is for the fair to be held in La Grande, no races whatever, similar to the fairs which have been so successfully held in Pendleton for the past three years. An exhibit of the fruits and products of the county combined with a stock and poultry show, the admission being only 15 cents. Under present conditions the Observer believes the Pendleton plan backed by the business interests of La Grande is the thing to do. However, what ever is to be done should be decided upon and active work commenced. Either plan can be made successful, but neither can be made so two or three weeks prior to the opening date.

The copy for the premium list, should be in the hands of the state printer now and distributed early in June so that the farmers could know how to prepare. To make a county fair successful it is necessary to enlist early, the enthusiastic and active support of those who grow the exhibits.
