SALT LAKE LIKES HER

"Vice and crime in Salt Lake was the theme of several sermons delivered yesterday. Two of the most forceful discourses on the existing evils of the city were delivered by Mrs. E. E. Shepard, President of the W. C. T. U. In the morning she spoke to a large congregation in the First M. E. church. In the evening Mrs. Shepard occupied the pulpit in the East Side Baptist church.

That Salt Lake could be made the most moral city in the country, was clearly brought out by the forceful manner in which she spoke." The Herald—Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Shepard will conduct institute in the Central church, May 20 and 21.

M. W. A. WILL FEAST

A special musical and literary program has been prepared for the joint open meeting of the Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors, to be held at the M. W. A. hall on next Monday evening. A basket supper will be one of the features of the entertainment and to prevent rivalry, the price of the baskets will be limited to 50 cents.

The two lodges expect to gain quite a number of new members as a result of the open meeting, and are planning to give every one in attendance a splendid three hours of pleasure.

GRANGERS DIVIDED

The grangers of the state are divided on the matter of state built railroads according to C. D. Huffman and Fred Huffman, who returned this morning from McMinnville where the granges convened, they having taken their departure before the meeting actually adjourned.

Yesterday the matter of state normal schools and roads were to come up, and consequently, they know nothing of what transpired relative to these measures, as they left yesterday morning. No action was taken on the railroad movement due to the fact that the delegates were far from united on the feasibility of state built road.
