HUNTINGTON FAR TOO EASY

COVE, May 17.—(Special)—Huntington got an awful walloping here yesterday when the fruit growers trimmed the gateway people 15-9. The story of the contest is uninteresting after the second inning. The first two cantoes saw Huntington pull the tally cords nine times, and then something else happened. Cove finished strong hitting Huntington out from then on, and scoring almost at will. The features of the game were three base wallops by Allen and Carter. Huntington got nine hits, and Cove 15. Batteries—Cove, Smith and Gibson; Huntington—Nelson, Schoomore and Staniker.

SQUIRREL HELPS GAME AT UNION

UNION, May 17.—(Special)—The ball game here yesterday between the locals and Baker City bunch was a farce as far as a real contest is concerned. The score, 13-0, in favor of Union, was made by the simple hit and run method. The monotony was relieved in the fifth when a sage rat was turned loose on the diamond and all the local team except Mulvehill, the catcher, quit the game and chased the squirrel. Mulvehill held the ball at home. In the eighth another squirrel tried to make the rounds and was caught at second by Nodine, who put the runner in his pocket until after the game.
