If we only had a warm rain? Well we had the warm rain last night. It is the same old story year after year, many fear something is always about to happen to cause a shortage in crops...

Not only the farmer rejoiced at the copious showers that fell during the night, the owner of lawns were thinking seriously of commencing upon their irrigation campaign.

We are anxious to see the band boys in their new suits.

Pueblo, Colorado, is a closed town. Who says the world does not move.

BLUES WIN IN CONTEST

For the past six weeks there has been a contest for new members at the Methodist Sunday school. The school was equally divided, the Blues under the leadership of Miss Ruth Bush and Marble Green, the Red's under Miss Lula Dawson and Walter Ferguson.

Last night a committee of the Blues met and decided to give a social evening in the church one week from next Friday. Young and old are to appear in juvenile costume...

TEAM GOES TOMORROW

As stated yesterday by the Observer La Grande is to send a team of four members—only the field team and one hurdler—to the Corvallis interscholastic, and tomorrow morning the quartet takes its departure.

THE MESSAGE FROM MARS IS A TREAT

The dramatic architecture of "A Message From Mars," reflects great credit upon its author, Richard Ganthony. Mr. Ganthony was, before turning playwright, a newspaper writer of recognized ability.

Dr. Little of Imbler, brought Mrs. Elmer, of Summerville, to the Grande Ronde hospital this afternoon, to be operated on for appendicitis.

CLUB ELECTS

(Continued from page 1.) Impressively, speaking of the duties well done, and the harmony that prevailed in all branches of the work...

WEST' MAY PLAY BALL

Baseball enthusiasts in the La Grande band have started something for other amateur organizations are brewing. Among them is the brewing going among salesman of the N. K. West store, and it is quite likely that they will form a club in the near future.

Such games would be real treats to the average fans who are always indulgent with amateur errors, in fact like such baseball for a change.

No Electric Lights Yet.

The through trains of special speed on the O. R. & N., Nos 7 and 8, will not be electrically lighted until May 25. This is resultant of neglect on the part of the Chicago manufacturers to fulfill their contracts for construction of motors and necessary equipment at the time specified.
