"MESSAGE FROM MARS" SEATS ARE NOW ON SALE

That delightful comedy-drama, "Message From Mars," is the offering at the Steward May 22. The reputation this play has acquired in London and New York City by its long phenomenal run, together with its popularity in all of the cities where it has been seen, is sufficient to cause very general interest upon the part of theatre goers. The play has many merits, and strange to say, it appeals to all classes, the floor and balcony and the gallery alike. It is clean-cut and beautiful in its simplicity. Its humor is of a refined quality, always pleasing, dignified, yet exorcisingly funny. It is conceded to be logical in its conclusion and at no point are either its characters or situations overdrawn. Its scenic embellishments are remembered with distinct vividness. The introduction of an inhabitant from the planet Mars is conceded to be something out of the ordinary. Seats are now on sale for "The Message From Mars." A common impression prevalent is that the "Message" is the nature of a comic opera. The production is a comedy drama, full of feelings and morals.

VINTRILOQUIST STILL PLEASURES HER AUDIENCE

Vandeville came on eye in order at the scenic tonight. That Miss Mabel Johnston, the only lady ventriloquist in the United States, "all there," is manifest by the high praise coming from those who attend. While she changes her catch tonight, it will not deteriorate her attraction, but make it even better. The other team, Amick & Marek, put on some black face stuff and he is excellent, and able supported by his team mate. The house was crowded last evening and Manager Gardiner refers the reader to anyone who has been there.

Rev. Finger Will Leave Baker.
Today it is announced from church circles that Rev. Jacob Finger, pastor of the First Methodist church of this city, will not return for another year. When the M.
