PRIZE FIGHT COMING HERE

A moving picture exhibition of decidedly a first class nature will be the reproduction at the Steward, for matinee and night performance on Wednesday, May 26, of the Burns-Johnson fight, which occurred in Sydney, Australia, last December. These pictures, said to be marvels of photographic art, were taken in the open air on the morning of a bright summer's day. Every detail of the fourteen rounds of fighting from the tap of the first gong until Superintendent of Police Mitchell stopped the battle to save Burns from further punishment, is clearly shown.

The pictures are reproduced here by a traveling organization under an arrangement with Mr. Hugh D. McIntosh, the famous Australian promoter of boxing, who was the referee on this occasion.

Despite the expense in taking them and reproducing them in America, popular prices will be charged for the performance at the Steward, May 26.

An expert lecturer, who was present in Sydney at the fight, will be in charge of the exhibition here and will give interesting data during the progress of the pictures.

SUNDAY'S SCHEDULE

According to the schedule, Huntington plays La Grande here next Sunday. On the same day, Elgin, the substitute team for Perry, will play Baker City at Baker and Cove plays at Union.

This will be the beginning of the "second time around" for the teams in the amateur league, and will also be the day when Elgin makes its debut in organized baseball, in the place of Perry who has dropped out.

Nelson the Perry twirler, will throw for La Grande in the coming contest, it is likely, and once he has someone to hold him, will make a showing worth while.

College Windjammers.
APPLETON, Wis., May 21.—Youthful orators from several states arrived here today to participate in the annual contest of the Interstate Oratorical Association.

entirely different from the one they put on the first of the week—tonight and Saturday and Sunday matinees and night. These people guarantee to show La Grande people the fastest juggling act ever seen on the Pacific coast.

Besides, there will be two reels of the finest pictures ever seen here.

Matinee tomorrow afternoon and continuous performance Sunday afternoon from 2:30.
