

DYE'S REMAINS FOUND AT KAMELA

A head, a portion of a human body, an overcoat, with the sleeves chewed off as if by wild animals, all of which is unquestionably all that is left of William Dye, who disappeared mysteriously from Kamela several months ago, were found yesterday about a quarter mile from the cabin near Kamela, where the man lived before his disappearance.

Justice of the Peace Stewart, deputy coroner, and Constable Faulk left for Kamela this morning and held an inquest immediately upon their arrival.

The cause of Dye's death is not known, but that he was murdered seems probable, for when last seen he was leaving Pendleton after having cashed checks amounting to $200 or $300.

At the time of Dye's disappearance his creditors thought that he had absconded as his debts greatly exceeded his ability to pay. A few days ago a lot of wood that had belonged to the missing man was sold under attachment.

It is possible that the man became despondent and committed suicide, but so far as is known he had given no indication of despondency. Owing to the extreme state of decomposition in which the body was found it is probable that the coroner's jury will be unable to assign the cause of the death.

Rewards Are Being Offered

OMAHA, Neb., May 24.—Rewards of $24,000 are offered today for the capture of the four bandits, who robbed the overland limited mail on the Union Pacific of seven bags of registered mail Saturday night, near here. Estimates of the value of the mail vary from $100,000 to $150,000.

LOWER RATES TO INTERIOR CITIES

PORTLAND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TAKES ACTION.

Makes Formal Complaint Against Former Commission Rule.

SALEM, May 24.—Endeavoring to secure lower rates to the interior, made necessary as a result of the Spokane rate decision, the Portland Chamber of Commerce today filed a formal complaint with the railroad commission asking an order relating to the distributive rates on the O. R. & N., made by the railroad commission last spring against which a restraining order was obtained in federal courts, be modified so that lower rates can be secured.

TRIAL OF HANLEY BEGUN

PORTLAND, May 24.—The government "fencing" case against William Hanley, rancher and manager of the Harney County Development company began in the federal court today. It is alleged that Hanley holds between $2,000 and $3,000 acres of land, which in addition to that legally owned by the company, makes the total amount involved more than 147,000 acres in Harney county.

TWELVE YOUTHS WILL COMPETE

LOCAL TEAM WILL LEAVE FOR PENDLETON TOMORROW.

Not in Condition Which Prevailed Earlier in Season.

Twelve stalwarts, the best the local high school possesses from a point of skill and ability in things athletic, will leave for Pendleton at 5:15 a. m. tomorrow to compete in the annual interscholastic, which takes place tomorrow afternoon. Will La Grande be the team to which the famous Houston of the University of Oregon will present the cup? That is the question bothering those who have closely followed the conditions of affairs, the condition of the local team and the strength of the other teams competing. It will be a race to the bitter finish, and when La Grande comes home it will either be with the scalps of others dangling at their belts, or the reputation of having put up the gamest fight known to athletics.

It will be last and greatest meet of the season. Many from here are planning to be on hand to do their little mite toward winning. Candidly speaking, La Grande is not in as fine fettle as it was at the Union meet or Walla Walla triangular, but for all that staunch hopes are entertained for victory of the first order. Those to go are:

- Dashes—Carp, Williamson and Cecil Bolton.
- Weights—Geddes, Heidenrich, and Meyers.
- Hurdles—Pearce, Heidenrich, Ingle, Williamson and Reynolds.
- Jumps—Jay and Frank Millering, Young.
- Distances—Pearce, Reynolds and Heidenrich.
- Geddes, Young, and the two Millerings will meet the others at Pendleton.

SHORTER WORK HOURS FOR ALL FEMALE HELP

Telephone girls and all females employed in manufacturing and mechanical establishments, laundries, hotels or restaurants in the city of La Grande or any other city in the county, must not under the law, which becomes effective today, work more than eight hours a day or more than 60 hours per week. Any employer who shall fail to comply with this provision, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined for each not less than $25 nor more than $100.

All the laws enacted by the regular session of the past legislature, went into effect today and as several copies of the general laws are in the city, careful study should be made of them. The 8-hour law for female employees, is especially interesting.

Licenses for male fishermen are also required after today. This regulation will effect many of the working girls who are now working nine hours.

OFFICIALS' SALARIES REPEALED

After January 1, 1911 there will be no sheriff's salary in Union and some other counties of the state of Oregon. The legislature of 1911 by a single enactment, fixed the salaries of the sheriffs of the various counties of the state, the act being section 2934 of the present code. Since that time, by special enactment, the salaries of the sheriffs in 18 counties have been changed, leaving Clackamas, Coos, Curry, Douglass, Gilliam, Harney, Jackson, Lake, Lane, Lin. Marlan, Morrow, Tillamook, Union, Wallowa, Wasco, and Yamhill counties unchanged. The late legislature by an enactment, known as chapter 132, of the general laws of Oregon for 1909, copies of which are now in the hands of local attorneys and officers, amended section 2934 of Bellinger and Cottons annotated codes and statutes of Oregon, so as to read as follows: "The sheriff of Coos county Oregon, shall receive as compensation for his services as sheriff and tax collector an annual salary of $3600 per annum to be paid in like manner as the salary of other county officials." Section two of the act provides that it shall not take effect until January 1, 1911. The effect of the foregoing provisions, is to change the section of the code so as to omit and exclude from its provisions any authority of law for the payment of the salaries of the sheriffs in the counties above named other than Coos, after January 1, 1911.

County treasurers in Baker, Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia, Douglass, Gilliam, Harney, Lake, Lincoln, Morrow, Polk, Tillamook, Umatilla, Washington and Wallowa counties will not draw any salary from now on if the law is followed. While the section relating to the salary of the sheriffs in different counties does not go into effect until January 1, 1911, the chapter that makes it unpleasant for the treasurers goes into effect today, and they can hereafter get no salary by authority of law in the counties named. A special session of the legislature seems to be the only remedy. The section of Bellinger and Cotton's code, which relates to the salaries of these officials is 29-30. In the general laws of Oregon the amendment will be found in chapter 214.

HORSE SHOW JUNE 12

A horse show for La Grande on June 12 is the announcement coming from the Commercial club today, and another banner event for the city is thus assured. The first taken to insure a successful show, was the appointment of N. K. West as chairman of the executive committee. Mr. West is out of town today and cannot be interviewed as to his plans.

though it is doubtful if he has decided on any set scheme yet, for the news was only conveyed to him this morning. His knowledge of horses and what the county contains in horseflesh, will give him great aid in the work.

The nature and details of the show cannot be announced until Mr. West has outlined his plan of procedure and appointed assistants in the work.

FANCY PRICE PAID FOR LAND SET TO ORCHARD AT IMBLER

One of the highest known prices $400 per acre, a price known to be equalled in that section but once or twice. It is a Hood River story of marvelous rise in the price of semi-arid land. The land in question was, until a few years ago, considered entirely unfit for orchard purposes.

In addition to the fruit lands, Mr. Oliver disposed of 2000 acres of land near Ladd Canyon at $16,000. He will move to Portland at once.

ENEMIES AFTER HENEY'S SCALP

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Opponents of Prosecutor Heney, in the Calhoun bribery case now on trial in San Francisco it is expected today, will demand a withdrawal of his appointment as special assistant under Wickersham, perhaps on the grounds that for three years he devoted almost his exclusive time to San Francisco graft cases.

Wickersham has ordered Heney to Portland to prosecute land grab cases there, as soon as the Calhoun case is over.

EAKIN'S BROTHER NAMED JUDGE

SALEM, May 24.—J. A. Eakin, an attorney of Astoria, and a brother of Justice Eakin of the Oregon Supreme bench, was today appointed by Governor Benson to the new judgeship of the fifth judicial district. The last legislature created a new judgeship in that district, making it obligatory on the governor to name a judge from the counties in the fifth district.
