FINGER IN LA GRANDE

Jacob Finger, coach of the Baker City high school track team, was in the city this morning, having come down on No. 11, and left on No. 7 for Pendleton, so that he may be present at the meet tomorrow. Mr. Finger, who is a graduate of Syracuse University and was prominent in track athletics at that institution, is pastor of the First Methodist church in Baker City. He prognosticates a decided victory for Baker at the Pendleton meet.

His team passed through on the morning train and will meet the Baker weight men at Pendleton. The Baker City people won 10 points at Corvallis Saturday, when Bears took two firsts in the weights.

Baker City is still in the cellar of the Eastern Oregon Amateur league. Union has moved to the top with Cove, La Grande, Huntington and Elgin are tied for third place. With the exception of the game at Baker, much better ball was displayed, a matter that will please the fans of the various towns.

A letter to the Observer from President Muegge at Baker City denies that a decision has been handed down relative to the disputed Cove-Union game. The president says he will give no decision until affidavits from both managers accompany the protest.

DRILLING

There are several kinds of drilling but the kind that makes the farm pay is the drilling which makes water available. There is no need of a dry farm. The task is not so great as you may think. I have had years of experience and understand the well business thoroughly.
