An Ideal Cough Medicine.
"As an ideal cough medicine I regard Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in a class by itself," says Dr. R. A. Wiltshire, of Gwynneville, Ind. "I take great pleasure in testifying to the merits of Chamberlain's Cough medicine. In fact, I know of no other medicine that meets so fully the requirements of the most exacting in cases of whooping and coughs of children. It is a safe, pleasant and efficacious remedy for the ill it is intended." For sale by all good dealers.

HURRY CALL ANSWERED

An even hour before the train arrived, the La Grande track and field team was notified last evening that they were to report at Pendleton at 10 o'clock this morning. Seldom if ever have eight men got themselves ready for a trip more promptly. Notwithstanding the unsportmanlike methods adopted by the management of the meet, the team was ready when the train arrived, and instead of sleeping at home and taking the early morning train as planned, they were forced to undergo the tedious journey over the mountains to the wheat town.

The arrangements for the meet have been that preliminaries for the hurdle race were to be run in the afternoon. The La Grande boys counted on this and planned to spend the night at home and take the early train this morning. The change of plans on the part of the Pendleton management looks a little off color to say the very least.

By calling for the preliminaries early in the forenoon, the La Grande track men were forced to lose half the night's sleep or take the risk of arriving in Pendleton too late to enter their hurdle meet.

The Society Topics Club.
The last meeting of the Current Topics club will be on June 1. Mr. and Mrs. Silverthorn and Mr. and Mrs. Brenholts will entertain at the Brenholts' home. The evening will be devoted to the closing exercises of the district school. There will be songs and recitations, a debate and the usual spelling match from Noah Webster's old primer, in which will

PICTURES TOMORROW

A moving picture reproduction of the Burns-Johnson fight, which occurred in December at Sydney, will be the attraction for a matinee and night at Steward's opera house Wednesday night.

This is not a local affair, but is a traveling organization under the direction of Hugh D. McIntosh, the promoter and referee of the fight, who is in America trying to arrange a match between Johnson and Jeffries, and who has brought the moving pictures with him. They are being shown simultaneously in various parts of the country, including the Auditorium theater in Chicago, and are attracting a great deal of attention on account of the fact that they were made in the open air, and are said to be the clearest of the kind ever attempted. There has been a great deal of interest manifested in the fight between Burns and Johnson, which decided the world's championship, and, as it occurred in Australia, this is the first time that American have had an opportunity of passing judgment on the relative values of the two heavyweights.

The pictures show every detail, and are long enough to occupy an evening in the presentation. There is a lecturer with the films who explains the various interesting events. Seats are now on sale.

be given a chance to display their familiarity with the English language. The school master and the singing master will both be present and a most instructive program has been prepared. The District School opens promptly at 8 o'clock.
