FIRE PROTECTION LAW IS PUBLISHED TODAY

The ordinance to provide for, and to determine the number of exits, the manner of swinging doors in public buildings, etc., is published in this issue of the Observer. The ordinance becomes effective on June 5, and there are numerous public places, churches especially where changes will have to be made at once. The ordinance covers the field thoroughly, and owners of public buildings, their people in charge, and the public in general, for that matter, had best peruse the ordinance carefully. While certain to give better protection to the public in case of fire, the measure will be of no value unless carried out to the letter, and as the officials are determined to see its purpose realized, buildings should be made to accord with the requirements of this ordinance.

ACCIDENTAL MURDER CALLED MURDER IN FIRST DEGREE

PENDLETON, May 28.—That is murder in the first degree to kill one person when the bullet was aimed at another, is the verdict of the grand jury in Umatilla county where a charge of murder in the first degree was returned yesterday against Mike Ryan, slayer of M. E. Dixon. The murder was the outcome, a week ago, of a quarrel near Pendleton between Ryan and a neighbor. Ownership of a road led to the trouble. Dixon was riding with Ryan when the quarrel started, and then attempted to pacify both parties. The shot apparently aimed at the irate neighbor, took effect in Dixon and he died soon after. The indictment was a surprise to the general public as well as to the attorneys for the defendant, Winter & Lowell, as it was the general belief that manslaughter or second degree murder would be the extent of the charge. This disposal of this case finished the business before the grand jury at this time and the members were allowed to disband and go to their homes. They are subject to call at any time however.

EVEN DOZEN TO GET SHEEPSKINS THIS EVENING

Tonight at 8:30 in the Steward Opera House, will begin the commencement exercises of the 1909 class of the La Grande high school. Seats have been sold at a rapid rate today, and unless climatic conditions are too severe, the house will be taxed to accommodate the audience. The stage has been converted into a perfect bower of beauty, class and school colors predominating. There is a decided air of the school room in the opera house today, and will become all the more marked when the graduates are introduced to their friends. The commencement exercises and the presentation of sheepskins will take place during the same evening. The program for the evening follows:
