E-RU-SA—THE ONLY LAWFUL PILE CURE.
Because it does not contain narcotics, mercury, cocaine, lead or any poisonous drugs. Because E-RU-SA cures piles. U. S. Dispensary recommends every ingredient of E-RU-SA. Drug laws make "false or misleading statements" a crime. Therefore the sale of all old or narcotic pile medicines is illegal because they effect the brain and spinal marrow; produce constipation and never cure. Only druggists of highest standing sell and endorse E-RU-SA.

ORDINANCE VIOLATED

Complaint was made this morning against Emily Stringham, residing on North Ash street, for picketing cows in the street, against the ordinance of the city. It is said that more than one runaway has been caused by the persistence of Mrs. Stringham in picketing her cows in the street, and Officer Black was compelled to take such measures as are necessary to stop the violation of the ordinance.

New Play at Pastime.
"The Prince of Liars" is the bill the Taylor stock Co. puts on tonight at the Pastime, and from all indications the standing room only sign will be out long before the curtain rises in the first act.

The Pastime is a cozy little theater, and the five piece orchestra gives it a metropolitan air.

On Friday night "The Fighting Hope" will be played for the first time in La Grande.

FEED AT THE MODEL
ON MONDAY

Next Monday evening is set for the regular monthly dinner of the Merchants' association. After the feed at the Model restaurant a business session of the association will be called and the combined events promise to bring out the majority of the membership.

Every fellow pays for his own dinner, but that fact does not detract from the pleasure of the occasion, and the monthly gatherings have been conducive of good fellowship and mutual understanding in large measure.

The Merchants' association is a live one, and cuts an interesting figure in the affairs of the city.

Inquiries are coming from Pendleton, Baker City and Union asking for full particulars of the railroadmen's excursion to Wallowa Lake and to the Minam river on June 20. Satisfactory rates have been secured for the occasion for all these places, and, judging from the interest that is being taken at these points, all Eastern Oregon will help swell the numbers that will seek recreation and enjoyment on this excursion.

In a day, the local committees will have huge placards ready to distribute at all points dealing information on the subject.

Though yet a half month away, little else is discussed in railroad circles than this same excursion. At this time, the plans are being worked out, but while this is going on, the public in general is shaping its affairs to permit participation in the event.

STORIE IS DIRECTOR

Samuel Storie was elected a director to succeed Fred G. Taylor, resigned, at a meeting of the directors this morning. The firm's business and future policies were discussed, but the chief object of the meeting was the selection of a director. Ernest Delong is president of the firm, having been elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders last spring.
