BIG JOB MOVING

One of the most difficult tasks in the housemoving line that has been attempted in this city, is soon to begin when housemovers move the J. M. Berry brick to its new location just across the alley from where it now stands. The foundation has been taken away in places to get jackscrews under the enormous weight of bricks that the needed skids and rollers may be put under the house. The progress of the moving will necessarily be slow, but the movers are confident of eventually setting the house down on the desired spot.

CHANCE TO GET PULLMAN

A La Grande Pullman to the Portland Rose show, leaving here Monday June 7 is the possibility in store for prospective visitors to the metropolis during that festival period. Agent J. H. Keeny is very anxious to have the names of those who intend to go recorded with him at once and if sufficient numbers so signify, he will order a La Grande pullman to be attached to the train nearest the majority's time of departure. Then too, if an equal number wish to go on the night of the ninth, he will again provide the pullman. However, to provide these accommodations, it is urgent that berths be recorded immediately.

SPLENDID PROSPECTS

The finance committee of the celebration is finishing up their work today. They began early this morning and realized a considerable sum in addition to the amounts already subscribed. There is plenty of money to cover all the expense of the most splendid celebration held in the state, and it will be expended wisely with a view to furnishing the most pleasure for the greatest number. The program committee is almost ready to announce the result of their work.

DRILLING

There are several kinds of drilling but the kind that makes the farm pay is the drilling which makes water available. There is no need of a dry farm. The task is not so great as you may think. I have had years of experience and understand the well business thoroughly.
