NOW That warm weather is coming on one is apt to think that an afternoon in a dental chair would be uncomfortable. Not so. My offices faces the north and a cool north breeze really makes a dental operation on a hot day bearable. If you are a business man and want to save time I believe I can serve you in an acceptable way. I am glad to note the fact that the public appreciates the fact that I have reduced the price of extracting from $1.00 to 50c. I have decided to increase the reward from $100 to $500 for information which will lead to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons implicated in breaking into my office and stealing my record books on the night of the 26th of April. Suitable reward for the return of the book.

ITALIANS ARE HOSTS

Prof. Alfredo Battelli, the Italian editor who is walking around the world, and arrived here yesterday afternoon, was last evening the guest of honor at a gathering of the local Italian colony. The affair was arranged with all due attention to details, and no banquet given by Americans in honor of prominent personages, was ever more heartily enjoyed or appreciated. Macaroni was the chief feature of the menu and during the long evening the traveling editor conversed with the local Italians in post-dinner conversation. To them he related his experiences while coming from the mother land. In a formal speech to the local colony, delivered after the macaroni was dispensed with, Prof. Battelli dwelt at length on the reasons why Italians should remember their native land; because it is a land beautiful, and more especially why they should love America; because it is their second mother country. During the progress of the banquet, the guest of honor was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses from the American foreman of the Italian workmen. Mr. Battelli today affirmed it was one of the most pleasing events of his entire journey.
