SOCIETY.

At half past five yesterday afternoon at their home at 108 Greenwood street, Rev. C. E. Deal spoke the words which made A. W. Nelson and Floy E. Massee man and wife. In the presence of only a few of their most intimate friends and relatives, and attended by Miss Lulu Gulling as bridesmaid and Harvey Bay as best man, they took their places to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Laura Green. The impressive ring ceremony was used. The bride was dressed in an empire gown of white silk and carried a magnificent bouquet of brides roses. Miss Gulling wore a rose colored mousseline and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas.

The rooms were bowers of beauty banked with roses, carnations and sweet peas and lighted with colored candles. Just preceding the ceremony, Miss Laura Green sang "When Song is Sweet" in her usual pleasing and effective manner, and after the congratulations, Miss Gertrude Ralston and Miss Ruth Bush served the guests with light refreshments. The presents were numerous and costly, and showed the high esteem in which the young people are held.

Immediately following the reception, the wedding party boarded automobiles and were driven to the west-bound train, where many friends were gathered to wish Mr. Nelson and his bride God speed on their wedding trip, which will include Portland, Astoria and Seaside. They will return in about a week and will be at home at 108 Greenwood street after July 1st.

For the past three years Mr. Nelson has been city editor of the Observer, and his ability, integrity and good fellowship have endeared him to all with whom he has associated. His wife is the daughter of Mr. Herbert S. Massee of this city, and during her residence in La Grande has made admiring friends of all her acquaintances. The young folks were schoolmates in Menomonie, Wisconsin, and the friendship, continued after their arrival in the west, ripened into love, and found its culmination in their marriage last night.

Mrs. Douglas goes to Baker City this evening to be with her husband during the summer. Mr. Douglas has the contract for the construction of a large flouring mill there.

SILVER TOILET SETS.

Nothing will be as much appreciated by the bride and groom as something that will be of practical as well as decorative use—in other words, silver backed hair brushes, combs, manicure sets, etc. etc.

In these lines we are showing splendid assortments—assortments that compare favorably with the most completely stocked of metropolitan establishments—at prices that are much better than those quoted here or elsewhere.

You will do well to inspect our stock before you buy elsewhere.

What Are You Worth From the Neck up?

The ordinary unskilled laborer is worth from $1.50 to $3.00 per day from the neck down. If you are capable of doing head work—planning and directing the work of others, your services are worth from $4.00 to $10.00 per day upwards. Two fifty to seven dollars a day represents the difference from a financial standpoint between the trained and the untrained worker, or in other words if your value lies from the neck up, or neck down.

Many a man, who today is down in the mire of over work and under pay, with a course of training such as the I. C. S. is able to give, would become a leader in his chosen work. If you are ambitious and willing to utilize your spare time for advancement, drop me a line and tell me something of your ambition and what you would like to prepare for. The I. C. S. will meet you more than halfway. You are putting yourself under no obligation by writing us and we are willing to give you every opportunity of investigating our methods and after it has been explained to you, act on your own judgment.
