Dr. Withycombe, who awarded the prizes at the horse show Saturday, paid the stock of Union county a very high compliment and was emphatic in the statement that with the exception of the exhibit at the Lewis & Clark fair, he had not seen as fine Clydesdale mares in the state within ten years as were on parade here. Dr. Withycombe is one of the best judges of stock in the state and is so recognized.

The next attraction in La Grande will be our celebration and the way the committees are working it is bound to be the best celebration ever pulled off east of the Cascades. Our citizens are working in perfect harmony. The business men are not only furnishing the money, but have secured the hearty co-operation of the ladies, who never do things by halves. The ladies have in charge the feature of the parade which represents the congress of nations. These floats will be artistic, historical and spectacular.

COMING CITY ELECTION.

The week from tomorrow the voters will have an opportunity to vote on the new city charter, which means in reality whether or not La Grande is to have a new water system. A prominent citizen sized up the situation today in the following statement: A choice for the voters to desire. Water arising from springs at the base of a mountain creek, in a district five miles square, on which even cattle are not allowed to graze and have not been for the past three years; conducted through pipes directly to pure water taps. Cost of obtaining, payable in money and also fully covered by increased prestige.

AT THE SCENIC.

Great Program Tonight—New Faces—New Films. The week opens at the Scenic tonight with new faces and new films. Magneto, the electric wonder, offers $1,000 to anyone who can prove that 5,000 volts do not pass through his body. Pulmag & Carrico, the great sister team, singing, dancing and character changes. Two exceptionally fine pictures, Oliver Twist, one of the latest, "The Empty Sleeve," vivid memories of the stirring times of 1861-5, followed by the comic film, "He couldn't dance, but he learned." Come tonight and you will want to see it again.

BANQUET MONDAY EVENING

The Commercial club will hold their banquet and talkfest on next Monday night at the old Elk's hall, now the K. of P. hall. The indications are that this will be the most largely attended banquet that has ever been given by that body. Business, good humor and good things to eat will all blend to make this an evening to be enjoyed by all who attend.

Business Meeting Tonight.

The Commercial club will hold their business meeting tonight at the Commercial club rooms at 8 o'clock. Important business is to be transacted and all members are urged to be present.

William A. Seale, the wireless telegraph man with former headquarters at Seattle, but who now has Umatilla and Union counties as his field, was in the city Saturday and attended the horse show. He grew so enthusiastic over the magnificent display of horse-flesh that he handed to the Commercial club a donation toward the expenses of the show.
