PUT TICKETS ON SALE

As a forerunner of the railroad men's excursion next Sunday, and one that hurries nearer the actual start of the excursion trains to Joseph and Minam, is the announcement from Local Agent J. H. Keeney that tickets will be on sale tomorrow and Saturday. This arrangement will be a big convenience to the prospective tourists for it will alleviate the necessity of going through the stipulated formula necessary to securing tickets on the morning of the excursion. There will be but little, if any, attempt to sell tickets outside of the depot, and for this reason, the buyers will have to actually call at the ticket office between now and the departing hour.

BAND SURE OF ITS TRIP

Definite assurance came last evening from the Commercial club at Joseph, that the La Grande band will be treated with special courtesy there next Sunday, and that the band will make the trip is also now a fact which up to the present time, has been a matter of doubt. Messrs Gardner and Beuhler have received a lengthy communication from the Joseph club saying that the band will be provided with a stand at the head of the lake where a concert will be held.

Will Tag La Grander's.
It is planned to tag all La Grander's that the transportation facilities at Joseph to the head of the lake may be open to the people from here in preference to all others.
