SILVER TOILET SETS.

Nothing will be as much appreciated by the bride and groom as something that will be of practical as well as decorative use—in other words, silver backed hair brushes, combs, manicule sets, etc. etc.

In these lines we are showing splendid assortments—assortments that compare favorably with the most completely stocked of metropolitan establishments—at prices that are much better than those quoted here or elsewhere.

You will do well to inspect our stock before you buy elsewhere.

J. H. PEARE

WATSON IN EASY RACE

J. H. Watson, division foreman of the O. R. & N., was waited upon yesterday afternoon by a committee of business men who presented to him a numerously signed petition that he become a candidate for school director, to succeed David Bay, at the coming school election. Mr. Bay has served for a number of years in the capacity of director, and has refused to allow his name to be presented again. Mr. Watson signified his willingness to accept the place if the electors so desire.

So far as known at present there is no one else who desires the office enough to make a race against Mr. Watson, and he will undoubtedly be elected. He was for three years on the board of the schools at Umatilla, and the experience gained there will prove valuable here.

A Tale of War.

"Brothers in Arms" is one of those war tales wherein two fellows loved the same girl—both went to war and were wounded—the lucky one returning married the girl and became a judge—the other became a tramp.

The war scenes in this picture are the finest ever attempted and you see the glory and horrors of the great struggle.
