A small boy was overheard lamenting the fact that circus day this year came so close to the Fourth of July. He did not see how he was going to finance both in so short a time.

The notorious Calhoun graft case in San Francisco is coming to a close. In all, five months have been consumed in the trial, whether conviction follows or not San Francisco will have a much better idea of how her municipal affairs have been handled than before.

Two guns from the famous battle-ship Oregon, which was a part of the armament when Captain Clark took her around the horn during the Spanish-American war and from whose decks he issued the statement that if he was not hampered by department orders that he could whip the entire Spanish fleet alone, are to be located on the capital grounds at Salem.

Medford has 250 men at work in putting in her $350,000 water system. If our charter meets with no opposition we will soon have a large force of men at work on our $146,000 system. The election is on the 22nd, we will not have long to wait.

It seems that the railroads are attempting to have the law requiring stock to be unloaded and fed and watered when in route exceeding twenty-eight hours, revoked. A test case is to be made.

The directors of the Oregon City Chautauqua are in session this week arranging the details for their annual meeting this summer. Some leader will see a vision of the possibilities of such a society in La Grande. We are located admirably, nothing of the character in Eastern Oregon; an educational drawing card that means sufficient commercialism to attract the businessmen of this city to investigate and assist.

The wise men of today are those who on the slightest trouble with their eye sight have that trouble investigated by a reputable optician.
Many an wearing glasses today could have had his trouble remedied by the wearing of glasses for a short period—if he attended to it in time.
