To Denver and Return.....$55.00

On Sale May 17; July 1; August 11.

These tickets present some very attractive features in the way of stopover privileges, and choice of routes; thereby enabling passengers to make side trips to many interesting points enroute.

Routing on the return trip through California may be had at a slight advance over the rates quoted.

Full particulars, sleeping car reservations and tickets will be furnished by any O. R. & N. local agent, or

WM. McMURRAY, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Oregon.

"SUNNY JIM" VERSES ARE NOT BOUGHT

"Sunny Jim", who according to himself has within the last five years saved $150,000 by his work of writing advertising jingles, failed to impress the board of managers of the Commercial club with the value of his stuff for their purposes, and his proposition to write up the valley in verse for the paltry sum of $100 was turned down. All this does not mean that "Sunny Jim" is a fake, or that his jingles have no value, but merely that the board could not see their way clear to buying space in magazines and high class periodicals for the verses.

SCHOOL CAR IS POPULAR

Scores are daily taking advantage of the splendid opportunities afforded by the International Correspondence School's instruction car in air brake studies. Employees of the O. R. & N. do not satisfy themselves with one visit but pay the car repeated calls. All are anxious to get the best possible from the instructors and the equipment, the likes of which is supplied to three other cars in the world.

REUNION NEXT WEEK

The Rhinehart family picnic will be held in the Freewater city park, beginning next Tuesday, June 22, and lasting until Saturday. Friday has been set apart by the campers as a public day, when any one who chooses will be welcomed at the park.

This family has relatives all over the country, and visitors are expected from every state. It is a yearly gathering, and they erect tents and have a dining room common to all and spend the time renewing old friendships and getting acquainted with the new members of the clan.

Notice of Impounded Stock.

Notice is hereby given that on the 16th day of June, 1909, I took up while running at large in the city of La Grande, Oregon, the following described animal, to wit, one Jersey bull, about two years old, no brands visible. Has square crop off of right ear and slit in left ear, that I impounded said animal in the city of La Grande, Oregon, under and by virtue of an ordinance thereof, and unless the owner claims and pays cost of feeding and keeping of said animal, at the expiration of ten days from the date of this notice, I will advertise and sell said animal, as provided by the ordinance of said city.

Done and dated in La Grande, Oregon, this the 17th day of June, 1909.

Ho! For The Picnic.

E. Polack, grocer, is nothing if not enterprising. He knew that everybody intends to participate in the railroadmen's excursion next Sunday, and has laid in everything necessary for such a trip except fishing tackle, and he has promised to loan a friend his own basket for the day. In order to be able to supply lunch goods to the crowds, Mr. Polack has laid in a supply of kippered herring, cheese, pickles and everything else that properly belongs in a picnic lunch, including several cases of choice sodas.

There are several kinds of drilling but the kind that makes the farm pay is the drilling which makes water available. There is no need of a dry farm. The task is not so great as you may think. I have had years of experience and understand the well business thoroughly.
