LIVE SNAKES IN EXPRESS

Two boxes of rattle snakes from a Texas snake farm consigned to Frank Adams, who has a small show in Walla Walla county at present, attracted considerable attention at the express office this morning. The two boxes weighed 70 pounds and the express charges were $17.10. The snakes could not be considered very valuable however, as the instructions read, in case the consignee did not call for them not to return, but notify the shipper.

TRAIN AGAIN LEAVES MANY

That time and the Joseph train waits for no man, or woman either, is a self-evident fact. Again today, passengers were left in the waiting room and on the platform while the train glided out of the yards and steamed Josephward. There is something wrong somewhere, and a simple sign hung on the walls to the effect that the Joseph train does not leave from the sidetrack, would alleviate all these many inconveniences. One lady who had purchased her ticket and checked her baggage is still in La Grande while her suit case is elsewhere. This happens to frequently, and the victims are usually those who are not acquainted with the habits of the branch line train.
