SOUVENIR BOOK OUT

John Collier, a director in the Oregon state organization of grocers, is handsomely portrayed in a splendid souvenir booklet issued by the National Association of Grocers' convention in Portland which was attended by A. S. Geddes of this city. Local members of the organization have received copies of the booklet, which is descriptive of Oregon, Portland and more generally devoted to affairs of the recent convention.

ELGIN FANS TAKE PART

Local baseball enthusiasts and business men of Elgin met last Monday night in the rear room of the City cigar store, and the baseball situation locally, was thoroughly canvassed. The sense of the meeting appeared to be that local pride demanded that Elgin quit her monkeydoodle business and put up a better quality of baseball than she has been doing. Elgin has the groundwork requisite for the formation of a club that is bound to be a league beater, and with slight addition to her superexcellent line-up there is no reason why Elgin should not stand, at the head of the Eastern Oregon Amateur League.

The merchants and business men of Elgin have responded liberally to the calls made upon them in this matter, and they have a right to see something of their money. This they will certainly get under the new organization and management. D. A. Barnes was elected manager; Ivan Thomas secretary and treasurer; C. W. Towner, captain.—Elgin Recorder.

SCHEDULE CHANGED

To accommodate the excursionists to Joseph tomorrow, the Amateur league schedule has been changed for one day. Cove will play Elgin at Joseph tomorrow. The Cove team is already there, and in this way two fast games will be seen tomorrow at Joseph for Wallowa is sending a strong team to the same grounds. Otherwise than this, there will be no change, Baker City coming here with a new line-up as was announced by the Observer several days ago, and Union going to Huntington to play the speedy aggregation at the gateway.

Has New Snare Drum.

Al Helmer the clever snare drummer in the La Grande band will introduce to the public tomorrow, a fine new drum. Its tone is much better than the one he has been using and he will bring out the rolls with added lust hereafter.

Express in Box Car.

A very ordinary box car today was drafted into service as an express car on the Joseph run. The amount of business, mail, express and baggage, is such that it often overruns the capacity of the accommodations.
