Those of our boys who exhibited stock at La Grande Saturday last, came back with reports of the finest kind of treatment at the hands of the La Grande people.—Union Republican.

The strawberry crop is moving and by next week the Central will bring from Cove alone 100 crates per day. These berries are going at about $2 per crate, but by next week it is thought they will drop to $1.75.—Union Republican.

This is the season of the year when campers should observe the law regarding camp fires. It was only last week that two men from Pendleton were brought before the courts and fined for leaving a fire while on an outing in Wallowa county last summer. It is much easier to see that the fires are put out than it is to square it after being arrested and much less expensive.

City election tomorrow.

You Better Vote.
 If you are in favor of Beaver Creek water turn tomorrow and vote. If you are opposed to it turn out and vote. What ever the result may be, provided the voters do their duty in turning out, the result will be accepted, but do not permit another accident to slip in by the majority staying away from the polls, thinking everything was alright.

INFANT CHILD IS BURIED

John, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Newcomb, living north of town, died Saturday night of pneumonia, and was buried this afternoon.

We Made an Error.

In mentioning the deserved promotion of Mrs. H. C. Rinehart of Summerville, by the Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star, the article credited Mrs. Rinehart with being a member of La Grande chapter which was an error, she having been for years an active member of Olive Branch, chapter 62, of Summerville.

THE TWO MIDGET WAYNES,

Wizards, at the Scenic.
 Robinson-Cain.
 Jay Robertson and Elsie Cain were married Saturday evening, Justice of the Peace Stewart officiating.

Notice of Impounded Stock.

Notice is hereby given that on the 14th day of June, 1909, I took up while running at large in the city of La Grande, Oregon, the following described animals, to wit; one dark bay horse, weighs about 1050 pounds, about 10 years old, branded I. H. on left shoulder, and J. D. (over bar) on right thigh. Foretop has been cut off, small saddle mark.

That I impounded said animal in the city of La Grande, Oregon, under and by virtue of an ordinance thereof, and unless the owner claims and pays cost of such impounding and keeping of said animal, at the expiration of 10 days from date of this notice, I will advertise and sell said animal as provided by ordinance of said city.

Done and dated at La Grande, Ore., this 15th day of June, 1909.
 L. RAYBURN,
 Chief of Police.
