PORCUPINE ON STREETS

Night Policeman McLaughlin captured a huge porcupine last evening. The "arrest" was made on the main street, and the officer had all sorts of amusement getting the prickly animal into a wooden box. Today the creature attracted considerable attention and created amusement as well for some wag had pinned on a notice to Poundmaster Black that, the animal had been found running at large and was ordered into pound. Advertising and subsequent sale was ordered with instructions that the receipts be turned over to Treasurer Logan. Just what will be done with the animal has not been determined.

VERY MUCH ENTHUSED

W. E. Thompson, of Enid, Okla., and G. F. Sucher, of Boone county, Iowa, have been in the city for the past few days looking for a location. They were shown over the valley by a local real estate man yesterday and are very enthusiastic over this locality, especially the Cove country. Mr. Sucher returned to Nampa, Idaho, where his family is stopping, this morning. He will make arrangements to move his family here at once. Mr. Thompson thinks that this is the best place that they have visited yet. They will probably buy land in the Cove.

NEW PLATE GLASS.

Lottes Building Being Supplied With an Attractive Front.
New plate glass will adorn the front of the Lottes building on Jefferson avenue, for already, the heavy plates have been set and glass doors are being hung today. The added story and the improvements to the front of the little brick, have made commendable changes in the appearance of the place and helps improve the looks of the otherwise obnoxious fronts in that block.

WATSON IS DIRECTOR

As was predicted in the Observer yesterday, J. H. Watson won the race for director in the school board, hands down, expressed in street parlance. Out of 83 votes cast, he secured 78, the other five being scattered, not more than two going to any one man.
Last evening the old board met and Chairman Bay retired in favor of Henry Fenson who is the next oldest director. Mr. Watson was sworn in and is now in office. Routine matters, such as auditing bills consumed the evening's attention.
