

Buy Clothes With Your Eyes Open

Have you been buying clothes where the salesman or the dealer puts the coat on your back, gives a hitch here or a pull there, passes your hand over your back and shoulders and says: "What a beautiful fit." That's one way of selling clothes and one way of buying them, but a far better way, according to our method of thinking, is choosing a size suited to the customer and giving him a coat to slip on himself, a coat that sets perfectly the moment he puts it on, whose collar sets close to the shoulders and seems moulded to the form, a garment that drapes and fits as only perfectly made clothes can. Clothes hold their shape. If you have been wearing clothes that have been pulled into shape with a flat iron, that will lose these good points after wearing them a brief time. Profit by experience and let value enter into your calculations.

GIRL LOST AND FOUND

For several hours today, Mrs. Emma Adams and many of her neighbors in east La Grande were thrown into a state of anxiety by the disappearance of Mrs. Adam's daughter, Edith, aged 12. The little girl wandered away from home unknown to her mother and later, shortly after noon, when the mother wanted the girl, she was missing. Neighbors joined the searching party and for a time, Pennsylvania and O streets were scenes of excitement. To the relief of all, Edith was found farther down town, playing with some girl friends.

COMMITTEE WILL MEET

Matters pertaining to the exact nature of the sports of that day will be settled definitely. Chairman Pearce has called all the members to be present at that time.

ANNUAL BANQUET

always consume all the good apples that can be grown.

Prayers for railroad competition were offered by W. B. Sargent, who outlined the phenomenal increase in realty values during the past 16 years. But lock of competition has retarded the growth, even at that, he said. His message to the listeners was a stirring and profitable one.

County fairs in the streets of La Grande were ably dealt with by Geo. H. Currey.

George T. Cochran created a vibration of enthusiasm with his plea for a chautauqua in La Grande, pointing out that one is soon to be located in Eastern Oregon and that it is up to La Grande "to go get."

After the train of brainy statements and frequent cropping out of thoughts that would require columns to properly lucidate, came the wit and wag of the evening when E. E. Bragg merely touched upon the topic "Advertising to be had from public schools." His remarks brought storms of laughter, and very frequently he punctuated his jokes with kernels of thought worth sleeping on. J. B. Stoddard took another feature, that of fruit organizations and unions. His outline and remarks were listened to intently.

George Stoddard touched a seldom-mentioned phase, that of securing factories to educate the young along mechanical lines and to have the factories here to send out stuff rather than continue to send out money to bring in stuff.

Hon. S. F. Richardson spoke informally and in an impromptu manner that pleased all, and he also confessed that he and his fellow farmers were faring ill for not keeping in touch and working in harmony with the Commercial club.

Fred B. Currey touched up the occasion with pleas for a heavy vote at today's election, and after Mr. Collier had thanked the guests for their attendance, the meeting broke up in smiles and hand shaking.

All of the speeches delivered at the Commercial club banquet last night were taken down in short hand verbatim by R. A. Hanna, court stenographer and will appear in the Observer from time to time the coming month. They are very interesting and should be read by everyone.
