MARATHON A FEATURE OF THE DAY

Some of the finest athletes in the county, and Eastern Oregon will participate in the Marathon race that is to be run here during the Fourth of July celebration. Cove, Island City and La Grande have already verbally signified their intentions of sending the best they have for the race. Others will come later, it is almost definitely ascertained.
The race will start from Jefferson or Adams avenue, and follow the shortest road to Island City by way of May park. The course will then lead through Island City, west, and return by way of Fruit Dale finishing on the same street where the start was made. Automobiles will follow each contestant all the way.

BARBERS HOLD PRACTICE.
Getting in Shape For Next Sunday's Game with The Band.

If one had wandered out to the Lincoln lot last evening shortly after 7 o'clock, a strange and peculiar vision would have been flashed before the eyes, for the barbers who will comprise the team that is to meet the La Grande band next Sunday afternoon, was practicing diligently. Now some of them are has been's and others will be, but they tried just the same and that is half the battle. Their lady-like hands, made soft from their frequent application on whiskers, were stung quite often, but bulldog grit permitted them to proceed with their practice. When it was too dark to discern the little round ball, they broke up training and went back to polish more chins.
