LA GRANDE GIVES GAME TO ELGIN

La Grande yesterday forfeited the game with Elgin on account of refusal to consider or comply with La Grande's objections and request regarding umpires. The game went by default and the excursion—costing Grant Lincoln a neat sum of money due to lack of patronage—returned to La Grande.

It was another of those nasty affairs which crop out in baseball occasionally with any aggregation where organization is not up to the highest standard, and even then, frequently. The fracas arose over the fact that Elgin would have Lee Morelock for umpire and no other arrangement could be made with them. Manager Lincoln objected to Morelock, as other managers before him have.

After wordy negotiations, Lincoln condescended to have Elgin name any other man but Morelock, Elgin refused. Then, stooping still farther, Lincoln offered to leave Morelock in, provided La Grande name another official, which is perfectly legitimate. Again Elgin refused. Then La Grande refused to play and went home. While not substantiated, it is said that Morelock had money up on the game, and, La Grande learning of this, refused to let him officiate.

The excursion train was run with a patronage of 25 and Lincoln paid fares for 35 imaginary passengers.

E-RU-SA—THE ONLY LAWFUL PILE CURE.

Because it does not contain narcotics, mercury, cocaine, lead or any poisonous drugs. Because E-RU-SA cures piles. U. S. Dispensary recommends every ingredient of E-RU-SA. Drug laws make "false or misleading statements" a crime. Therefore the sale of all old or narcotic pile medicines is illegal because they effect the brain and spinal marrow; produce constipation and never cure.
