

Don't Forget
The abstract before you invest—it's absolutely necessary if you wish to buy a lot of expensive litigation
and probable loss of the investment.
We draw you up an abstract,
be thoroughly posted on what you are purchasing. We have the only complete set of abstract books in Under the county. Guaranteed accuracy and prompt work.

Critics Say
The wise men of today are those who on the slightest trouble with their eye sight have that trouble investigated by a reputable optician.
Many an wearing glasses today
could have had his trouble remedied
by the wearing of glasses for a short period—if he attended to it in time.

HUNTINGTON WALLOPS THE UNION TEAM YESTERDAY

Union, June 28.—(Special)—Friction among the Union players yesterday spelled defeat for the contenders for first honors, and Huntington is now tied for first place.

The Union players were temporarily disorganized over factionalism, and Twirler McMillan and Shortstop Clark were two of those who were largely responsible for the loss of the game. Huntington took advantage of the trouble and scored 7 runs, while Union tinkled the pan twice. McMillan walked eight men during the game and Clark errored repeatedly. Spoonover threw for the Gateway people.

Cove Defeats Baker City.

BAKER CITY, June 28.—(Special)—In a featureless game, Baker City suffered the ninth successive defeat this summer, by Cove yesterday, the final score being 5 to 0.

LOUD PRAISE FOR THE CITY'S MEMORIAL GIFTS

Writing to Chairman Mrs. Fred G. Schilke, who engineered the subscriptions for the Lincoln Farm Association, General Manager E. E. Perce speaks with high compliments of La Grande's showing. The letter says in part:

June 16th, 1909, Mrs. Dora B. Schilke, La Grande, Ore., Dear Madam: We are in receipt of your club subscription sheets and remittance. Your work and that of your committee, in behalf of this association, has been of such an exceptional character that I wish to extend to you, on behalf of the executive committee, a most cordial expression of their appreciation. If all committees evinced the same spirit of unselfish, patriotic co-operation, the great work of the Lincoln National Park would soon be finished.

Again thanking you for your valued assistance and generous co-operation, we remain,

"To the memory of Lincoln"
Respectfully yours,
THE LINCOLN FARM ASSOCIATION
By F. E. PIERCE,
General Manager.

BARBERS GET SHAVED

Judging from the way the barbers are limping this morning one would think that they were in a railroad wreck. Just about the same. They crossed bats with the Band Boys yesterday and got walloped to the tune of 22 to 2. They all swear this is the last time that they will ever touch a baseball. The game was really good in some places and there were also times when it was suggested that some of the players join some circus as clowns. Take it all in all it was a very enjoyable affair and everybody seemed to think that they got their money's worth.

Everybody's Magazine

You've got no use for any magazine? No?
Don't need EVERYBODY'S? No?
Doesn't concern you? No?
BUT high-priced freight, coal, and lumber—pure food—cheap waterways? That hits you? Yes? That's what EVERYBODY'S is for. Get it; cut out an article occasionally and send it to your congressman. Things will begin to move—you won't feel so powerless.

What Are You Worth From the Neck up?

The ordinary unskilled laborer is worth from $1.50 to $3.00 per day from the neck down. If you are capable of doing head work—planning and directing the work of others, your services are worth from $4.00 to $10.00 per day upwards.
Two fifty to seven dollars a day represents the difference from a financial standpoint between the trained and the untrained worker, or in other words if your value lies from the neck up,
or neck down.

Many a man, who today is down in the mire of ever work and under pay, with a course of training such as the I. C. S. is able to give, would become a leader in his chosen work. If you are ambitious and willing to utilize your spare time for advancement, drop me a line and tell me something of your ambition and what you would like to prepare for. The I. C.
S. will meet you more than halfway. You are putting yourself under no obligation by writing us and we are willing to give you every opportunity of investigating our methods and after it has been explained to you, act on your own judgment. Write today.
