HARNED IS PROMOTED

Conductor R. A. Harned, better known as just plain "Doc" and who only recently returned from Boston where he represented the Conductors' order of this city at the national convention, left last evening for Portland where he will assume new duties as general yard master for the O. R. & N. at Portland. The position is a responsible and strenuous one, but a long jump upwards in promotion. The promotion is earned however, as Harned is classed as one of the best conductors on the road.
Mrs. Harned will leave in a few days to join her husband and they will make Portland their permanent home city.

COMISKY GIRL MARRIED

PENDLETON, June 29.—Pendleton's fame as a matrimonial center will rapidly spread as a result of two weddings which have occurred here during the past few days. As a result of the obnoxious Washington marriage law requiring a physician's certificate as to health, several Washington couples have come to Pendleton to be married. This morning it was learned that Miss Evelyn Comiskey, who was married here Tuesday evening to Harry L. Stone, a musician of Spokane, is the 18-year-old daughter of the famous manager of the still more famous Chicago White Sox, winner of the world's baseball championship.
