"I am only the servant in the house," says Speaker Cannon. But this is an age when the servant runs the establishment.

The government pays $1,200 per year for a man to offer prayers for the U. S. senate. The job is worth ten times that salary.

The burglar that tried to rob Gen. Funston not only failed, but did his intended victim a favor by restoring him to public notice.

Pretty soon we shall be hearing mother say, "No, Johnnie, you positively must not go in your baloon today. You might take cold."

"Iowa has an editor ninety-four years of age," says the Atlanta Georgian. When that man promulgated the "We are here to stay," he evidently meant it.

A TOAST TO THE FARMER.

An eastern paper proposed the following toast to the poor farmer:
"Here's to the poor farmer. How can he have a very merry time when he has nothing to live in but a big house, nothing to shelter his horses but a warm barn, nothing to eat except everything that grows in the ground or can be bought at the store, no way to get his mail except having it brought to him every day by a smiling mail carrier who will soon be wearing Uncle Sam's uniform with shining brass buttons, no way to get to town but with a rubber-tired buggy or auto, no way to make money but by selling 50 cent corn, 35 cent butter, $5 hogs, 27 cent eggs and have his farm double in price every once in a while. While you are enjoying your Sunday dinner, don't forget to drop a tear for the poor down-trodden farmer man."

CEMENT WALKS TAKE SHAPE IN NUMEROUS LOCATIONS

Record breaking street improvements in the way of cement walks and board walks, have been realized the past two months. Not alone is the total of cement walks large but it is of a superior quality. Contractor Mars, who has done practically all of this work, meets entire satisfaction with his work from Street Superintendent Matott and the street committee of the council. A half mile of board walk has been put in place, but more important than this, is the amount of cement walk completed recently.

Among the cement walks built are the following:
J. C. Wright, 187 feet on Pennsylvania and Sixth; F. Floyd, 120 feet on Sixth street; A. A. Gust, 90 feet of 12-foot walk on Adams avenue, and 60 feet on Adams avenue near the Japanese quarters, by W. B. Sutherland. These two pieces of walk connect continuous cement walks on both sides of the street from Chestnut to Hem- a distance of over a half mile.

Bill Saling, 197 feet of five-foot walk, corner North Depot and Monroe; Mrs. Proebstel, 53 feet and curb on Second street, and the court house walks including 1234 square feet of 7 foot walk.

Street Superintendent Matott affirms that the improvements planned for the immediate future have not taken shape yet and when they do, the record of the past few months will again be broken.
