GREATEST CROWD IN HISTORY OF LA GRANDE WILL BE HERE THE 5TH

The large tent where the barbecued meat and coffee will be served on the 5th, is being put up today, on Elm street, between Jefferson and Adams avenue.

Encouraging reports still continue to come from all parts of the county and it is estimated that 10,000 visitors will be in La Grande on the fifth of July.

In almost every vacant lot in the city you will see some kind of an old wagon undergoing a remarkable change. Everybody is having their float prepared for the mammoth parade. While there are a few who "have taken to the woods" to build their floats, the greater part of them are in the open. It is rumored on the street today that Bill Allison's "plug uglies" and great collection of monstrosities slipped into town last night but after a careful search by the whole reporter staff of the Observer, he was unable to be found. Anyway, he has promised to here, and he will never break his word.

It is again requested that the people bring their basket lunch with them. The lawns are free, you can go where you like and pick your picnic grounds. You can go to the large tent and get coffee and meat free, and take it to your picnic grounds. Mrs. Barry, the famous caterer, will make the coffee and there will be plenty for all. The coffee is furnished by Wadham & Kerr Bros., of Portland, through the courtesy of Will French, their local agent. There has been 35 pounds secured for the occasion. The beef will be barbecued by I. W. Faulk.

Every store in town, except the drug stores, will be closed at 10 o'clock, and it is advisable that all who have any shopping to do, do it either on Saturday or early Monday morning.

Every man or woman who owns, or can get hold of an automobile on that day are requested to report to Al Andrews or Will Church, and get a place in the parade. The Blue Mountain Grange No. 345 will have two floats, each representing the results of their calling.

If you have not made arrangements to come to La Grande on the fifth of July, do so now, before it is too late.

greatly regret if you do not.

The Observer has been requested to again publish the line of march and the various divisions of the parade. The information follows:

The Line of March.
