With a work team selling on the street for $500 cash, and a public auction of 23 head of horses, about half of which were yearlings and two-year olds, bringing $2757.50, or an average of over $84 a head, it certainly looks like "horses are waking up," as J. C. McPetridge says, relates the Enterprise News Record.

Mr. McPetridge had the horse sale at the Red Front barn, Saturday, citizens being present in large numbers from all over the county, and a number of outside buyers were present. The bidding was lively and the stock brought "good times" prices, the best for common run of horses for many years. For instance, a team of two-year old small, black Percheron fillies, wool matched, sold for $223. Horse raisers present were all jubilant for present prices means a large addition to their wealth. H. B. Davidhizar was auctioneer, and S. F. Pace clerk.

A TOY PISTOL CLAIMS VICTIM

SEATTLE BOY DIES FROM AN ATTACK OF LOCKJAW.

Held Hand Over Muzzle When Cap Fatally Injuring Him.

SEATTLE, July 2.—The first per-fourth of July fatality of this year was recorded in the premature discharge of a toy pistol. The boy was firing a pistol in celebrating the approaching Fourth, holding his left hand over the muzzle when a black cartridge was exploded, forcing the paper wad into the hand.

May Have Found Chinaman.

NEW YORK, July 2.—A difference of opinion is expressed today among the authorities regarding the identity of the Chinese corpse found floating on the Hudson river yesterday. Corner McDonald and Police Captain Ward think it is the body of Leon Ling who is accused of the slaying of Elsie Sigel. Others say that it is not. An autopsy is being held today.

WILL PERMIT CRACKERS TOMORROW IF CAREFUL

Tomorrow and Monday are firecracker days, by special permit from the city officials. Anything permitted under the statute of Oregon can be exploded those two days. The special permit provides that nothing larger than a No. 7 giant firecracker can be used. It is not necessary to say that the boys of the city will make it hot for the nervous. Although the trend of the wind should be observed and the boys who celebrate should seek the open and be careful about fires. They should also take care concerning injuries and try, for once, to have a very sane celebration.

EASTERN OREGON VETS' ASSOCIATION NEAR END

UNION, July 2.—(Special)—What will undoubtedly be the last meeting of the Eastern Oregon Veterans' Association convened here today and will be in session until late this evening. At the business meeting which occurs this afternoon at a late hour, it is expected that a vote will be taken to disband the association which has had so many enjoyable reunions, because of advancing age of the veterans. Many from La Grande, Cove, Baker City, and some from Wallowa county are here. The program opened with: Music by the band. Invocation by J. W. Oliver of La Grande. Address of welcome by General Goodbrood of Union. Address of welcome to W. R. C. Mrs. Alma Rohrig, Union. Response, Mrs. Anna Roesch, La Grande, president of O. P. M. corps. Music. Oration of the day, C. E. Cochran of La Grande. This afternoon was occupied by following out of this program: Address, Mrs. Pursell, of the Preston corps, Union. Recitation by Katherine Riddle, La Grande. Annual business meeting of the G. A. R., and W. R. C. Flag drills. Presentation of a flag to the south Union school by the Union, G. A. R. and W. R. C. Reading by Mrs. Jessie Nelson of La Grande. Red White and Blue drill by the smaller folks. Celebrate Tomorrow. The reunion ends tonight, and tomorrow Union will celebrate July 4th in a very fitting manner. The town is filling up with people today and tomorrow will be a gala affair to all concerned.

OLD TEAM REVIVED TO ENTER LOCAL WET RACES

Revived by reason of the fact that there will be no out-of-town horse teams here for the Fourth, the original fire company which in its day won honors galore, it is now very probable, in fact almost a certainty, will contest with the present day company in a wet race during the celebration. Among the runners will be Don McLaughlin, Jack Peare, "Doc" Lincoln, "Shep" Williams, Holley, of Weiser, who is coming Sunday morning, and full quota of old time members. While they have lost some of their agility so noticeable in those days, they still have the knowhow and it is no idle guess statement to say that this same wet race will be one of the most interesting events, from a local standpoint of all the athletic contests. Many Attend Boat Races. POUGHKEEPSIE, July 2.—One of the largest crowds in the history of the Poughkeepsie regatta flocked to the crack collegiate oarsmen of the east and middle west. The town is gay with colors. Cornell Four Wins. The Cornell four, this afternoon, won the collegiate rowing event, winning by 15 lengths ahead of the nearest competitor. Cornell's baby eight broke all records for a freshmen event, winning in 9:07 3-5. Women Quite For Once. SEATTLE, July 2.—Following the stormy sessions of the past two days, there was a calm this forenoon among the delegates of the annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association in meeting here. Harriet Taylor Upton, treasurer, submitted the annual report today. It was intensely humid this afternoon the thermometer varying between 87 and 90.

The Medicine You Take
