Baker City seems to have secured railroad connection with the John Day country. This is a fertile territory to tap for the merchants of that town.

That young man who dropped from his balloon to death in Portland, Me., took a drop too much in prohibition Maine, says the Oregon Exchange.

When Pendleton ranches are divided she will want purchasers for these acreage tracts. Up to the present time the purchaser has not been found despite the fact that one of the ranches has been divided and is now on the market. The fact needs advertising.—Pendleton Tribune.

Naked land is some investment when it brings considerably over $100 per acre. But then, it is worth that for land is valued at its productive capacity and no other way. There can be no wildcat scheme about this land.

Fruits of labors centered on the road running at right angles to the east end of Adams avenue, are comencing to show themselves. In a few days, there will be a stretch of macadam roads there that will surely be an incentive for taxpayers to demand still more of that sort of highway.

The announcement yesterday that a dramatization of Elinor Glyn's macabre love story, "Three Weeks," is to be given in this city, has aroused a considerable amount of comment from both the local play-goers, as well as the anti-theatre workers. To such an extent has the discussion been carried that rumors are current that the local club women intend to start a crusade against the appearance of the piece, on the grounds that the same is unfit for public presentation.—Eugene Register.

The Medicine You Take

Whatever medicine you get at this store is exactly right. If you could see how your medicine is prepared here, the care that we give every prescription that comes into our store, if you had the professional training to appreciate the quality in all the drugs used and the skill used in preparing, you would never think of going elsewhere for even your simplest drug store wants. People who deal here never have any doubts about the medicine they get. The price is right too.

HILL'S DRUG STORE LA GRANDE, OREGON

As has been announced, I have taken over the stock and business of the BRAMWELL MUSIC COMPANY. This stock consists of Grands and Fine Uprights and some Square Pianos, Organs, and also the genius Pianola Piano. I have now made arrangements with the manufacturers for an entirely new and complete stock of pianos with which to commence business. I want to sell every one of the Bramwell pianos right away. I bought them low and I am going to sell them at less than regular wholesale cost to get rid of them quickly.

I know that it is hard to convince a person through newspaper print that a high grade Chickering or a Vose or an Eilers or a Fischer and many other well known pianos can now be bought below cost, but if any one who wants a piano will only come to see what I have to offer, I am sure there will be a good piano or organ in his home before sunset.

A Word as To Pianos

Everybody in this valley knows of the Bramwell Music Company. They were the great reliable dealers in this section. They have supplied dozens and dozens of homes with high grade musical instruments. They have never identified themselves with the sale of cheap or trashy instruments. Their business has always been conducted in an honorable high-class way. They have prided themselves on the high quality of the instruments they have always sold. Included in this stock I now offer are such world renowned pianos as Chickering and the magnificent Weber, the now world renowned Kimball, Philadelphia's pride, the Lester also Oregon's first and foremost, the Eilers Orchestral Piano, the Vose, the Poole and the Wagner.

Entire Stock Must Be sold Now

I want each and every one of these pianos sold at once. I will accept the factory cost and less. I don't figure on making a profit now because I must sell and sell quickly. Pianos such as have been sold by dealers for $250, $275, $300, I am going to take $148 and $157 for. I will take $37 for an Estey organ and a genuine Kimball for a very little more money—less than half price. It isn't necessary to pay all cash. I'll take three or four dollars a month. I offer tomorrow morning a genuine Bailey piano the $365 style for $185. Payments, cash or $6 a month buys it. Everything else at corresponding reductions, but the few instruments in the stock costing more than $300 will have to be paid for at not less than $12.00 per month. The vose and the Pease the Whitney and the Leland all go for less than halfprice, cash, or $8.00 a month buys them.

YOU MUST COME AT ONCE

Please remember that when this Bramwell stock has been disposed of that the opportunity to get these instruments at such reductions is gone. At the prices and the terms we are offering these pianos it should only take a few days to get rid of them all. Remember the place, the store of the Bramwell Music Co., 1316 Adams avenue. Store open from 8 o'clock in the morning until 9 at night until sale closes. J. T. Scott of the Bramwell Music Co.
