THE "UNDESIRABLES" MUST GO.

Huntington is going to experience a cleansing of the "undesirables," such a one as she has not experienced in many a year. Chief of Police Kelsey is notifying the so-called "boaters" and others that they will be given until tonight to seek other and more honorable occupations.

Huntington has become infested with a class of non-producers and rounders and "back door boys" who have no visible means of support; men who have never soiled their hands with labor, neither have they earned their living by the sweat of their brow, but from now on this class of people will not be permitted to stay in Huntington.

Keep the good work going—Huntington Herald.

Or buy a Wagner, slightly used, pay $10 cash and agree to pay $6 a month for one year, and the balance at the rate of $8.00 a month until you have paid $300 with interest and it is yours. These are only instances and point the way to our greater bargains.
