KING ROWE BOUND OVER TO THE CIRCUIT COURT

King Rowe was this morning bound over to appear before the circuit court on charges of assault and battery when Justice of the Peace Angus Stewart rendered a decision on the hearing held yesterday afternoon and evening when Rowe was on trial for assaulting Claire Crossen in the streets of La Grande a few weeks ago. The defense maintained that the terrible gash in Claussen's head was inflicted by his falling on a sharp rock, but state witnesses, including, said in testimony that the gash was created by a weapon of some sort. The skull was laid bare and after the assault Crossen bled profusely at the mouth, ears and nose. Whoever or whatever did the act, came near ending Crossen's career. Evidence was lacking yesterday, but on such as was produced, the court held the defendant over to the district court.

The act was committed on June 26, and after several days, Rowe was arrested in Payette charged with the assault.

Rowe hopes to get bonds for $500 this evening but now is in the custody of the officers.

He gained bondsmen last evening and was at liberty during the night, only to be incarcerated when the final decision was given today.

RECORD IN HIGH COURT

Attorney Eugene Ashwill has a record that seldom falls to the lot of an attorney. He has had seven cases before the Supreme Court of this State and has been successful in each instance.

He prepared the brief in the case just decided Tuesday regarding the vacation of the county road, which affects the yards of the George Palmer Lumber company.

E-BU-SA—THE ONLY LAWFUL PILE CURE.

Because it does not contain narcotics, mercury, cocaine, lead or any poisonous drugs. Because E-BU-SA cures piles. U. S. Dispensary recommends every ingredient of E-BU-SA. Drug laws make "false or misleading statements" a crime. Therefore the sale of all old or narcotic pile medicines is illegal because they effect the brain and spinal marrow; produce constipation and never cure. Only druggists of highest standing sell and endorse E-BU-SA.
