ANOTHER CASE TRIED

A contest case where a commuted homestead entry by Charles Hanson, of Starkey, is attacked by the government, went to hearing at the land office today. The attorneys are the same as yesterday and R. A. Hanna is the reporter. Horace T. Jones and Mr. Shearman appear for the government and C. H. Finn of this city, for the defendant.
The land involves lies near Starkey.

CAN'T KEEP THEM DOWN

It is said that there is always an end to all good things, but from all indications there is one exception to this rule and that is concerning the boosting spirit of the Riverside park. Now comes forward W. H. Bohnenkamp and David Bay with a proposition concerning the drilling of a well at the park.
Mr. Bohnenkamp has made an offer that he will furnish the pipe and the pump and David Bay has offered to supply the paint if others will see that the well is drilled on the park site. This is the spirit which has become so common in La Grande, not only in the park proposition but in all other public enterprises. Keep the good work up and watch La Grande make a showing which will daze other cities of the Inland Empire.
