ACTORS GIVE PRIVATE BALL

Organized societies exist in the Hagenbeck-Wallace circus and every Saturday night that the jump before the circus is less than 150 miles, the high-salaried actors and officials of the show, rent a dance hall and enjoy the music of their own orchestra. Last Saturday night from 12 to 2, the Elks hall here was the scene of one of these festivities. There were 40 couples present and with a few invited Elks of this city, danced to their hearts' content. Refreshments were served to the dancers by members of the society detailed for that purpose. Tired out as they were from a strenuous week, the music and frivolity aided to drive dull cares away, and those from here who were lucky enough to get bids, speak highly of the social attainments of the actors.

COMMITTEE TO WALLOWA

The members of the committee appointed to go to Wallowa and invite the people of that county to attend and send exhibits to the district fair to be held here in October left this morning for that place and will probably stay for a few days and complete all arrangements on this trip. The fair boosters are anxious that the people of Wallowa county feel welcome to this fair and all are invited to attend and send exhibits. Mae Woods, a member of the committee will not go today but will leave tomorrow and join the others at Wallowa. Those of the committee who went today are: John Collier, W. E. Sargent and F. B. Currey.

But little mouths don't care, so long as they feel the delicious coolness of our tempting ice cream. Children are fond of it, but what of their elders—especially the ladies? Very few ever decline the invitation to partake of a pure dish of our excellent cream. Take a box of this "Frozen Gladness" home with you.
