DRILLING

There are several kinds of drilling but the kind that makes the farm pay is the drilling which makes water available. There is no need of a dry farm. The task is not so great as you may think. I have had years of experience and understand the well business thoroughly.

Passenger traffic on the transcontinental roads have increased to such an extent that the officials of the U. S. L. will in a short time put on an extra train to be run between Salt Lake and Portland. The train will leave Ogden between 7 and 8 o'clock in the morning making it arrive in La Grande about noon the next day. While it is not certain just at what time the train will be put on it will probably be about the first of next month.

LOS ANGELES PAPER GIVES LOCAL ELKS BLOW OFF

The Los Angeles Examiner is here and is a mammoth Elk edition and gives the Elks of La Grande one page. It has the half tone cuts of all of the officers and also tells of the wonderful resources of La Grande and surrounding country. It says in part of the Elks' lodge here: "At La Grande another one of those beautiful little cities in the heart of Oregon, Elkdom has grown to become the byword of all of its prominent citizens and No. 433 boasts of being one of the most flourishing lodges in the state. It was organized about ten years ago, with a charter membership of 40. Today it has more than 500 members. The lodge has its own buildings which is used by them exclusively and is said to be the finest furnished lodge of its kind in the eastern part of the state."

This edition of the Examiner is one of the largest of its kind ever gotten out. Those who have half tone cuts in the paper from here are: C. S. Dunn, Past Exalted Ruler; H. E. Coolidge, Exalted Ruler; G. L. Biggers, Esteemed Lecturing Knight; I. F. Dunn, Esquire; F. W. Jolly, Tyler; C. O. Ramsey, Inner Guard; T. J. Scroggins, M. B. Donohue and W. B. Sargent, Trustees.

DIGNITARIES IN THE CITY

First Consoller to President Joseph F. Smith, John P. Winder, of Salt Lake City, arrived here Saturday and expects to remain several weeks. Consoller Winder is taking his vacation and after spending a portion of two summers in Grande Ronde valley is here for the third time to escape the heat of Salt Lake for a few weeks, which certainly is complimentary to our climate. Mrs. Winder accompanies him, and yesterday they spent the day with friends in Perry.
