MANY AT THE PICNIC

TALLHO CONVEYS OLD AND YOUNG TO PARK.

Presbyterians in Great Numbers Spend Day at Riverside.

A program of fun was carried out by members of the Presbyterian church and the Sunday school today when scores of that organization camped out at Riverside park. The first tallyho party left soon after 9 o'clock and made frequent trips during the day. At noon, the masculine membership spent a happy hour at the fun-place, eating a park dinner and returning for the afternoon's business affairs.

Though children predominated there women and men in considerable numbers.

No set program was carried out, the attendants devoting themselves to impromptu pleasures. Bathing parties were numerous.

The picnic a sort of annual affair was very largely attended.

The passing of the horse is exemplified in the action of Theatrical Manager D. H. Steward who has had his machine but a week and is already one of the clever drivers of the city. Mr. Steward has always been a horseless lover, and though not yet without that happy faculty, appears to get a heap of enjoyment out of his new machine.

CHANGE IN LINE-UP

When the Clerks and the Second Team cross bats at Lincoln park next Sunday there will be a decided change in the line-up of both teams. The Second Team has made several changes and it is said that they will go to the field stronger than ever. Ralston, Mackey and Jay, who have formerly been playing with the Band Boys, will appear with the Clerks and several more good pieces of timber have been secured. When one considers how strong the Second Team was two weeks ago and the new additions to the clerks, they will see symptoms of a hard fought battle.

The line-up of the two teams follow:

Second Team—Ellsworth, c; Montgomery, p; Metcalf, 1b; C. Noyes, 2b; Lineman, 3b; Pidcock, ss; Garrick, lf; R. Noyes, cf; Bystone, rf.

Clerks—Jay, p; Ralston, c; Mackey, 1b; Stone, 2b; Allstott, 3b; Francis, ss; Shelley, lf; Van Bellen, cf; Watson, rf.
