January 1, 1915, is the date set for the passing of the first vessel through the Panama canal. Reports state the work is just half completed.

This is the season for the chronicling of threshing machine explosions. Umatilla county has already had one machine ruined from this cause which is attributed to smutty wheat.

There is evidence already manifest sufficient to state that there will be active competition among our many growers of alfalfa to secure the blue ribbon at the fair for the best bundle exhibited.

Horse growers in this county are beginning to realize that the demand for saddle horses throughout the country is such as to warrant special attention to this class of stock, which range in weight from 1,000 to 1,200 pounds.

The exhibit of early pioneer relics and odd pieces of antiquity in general which will be on exhibition at the fair will doubtless prove more than ordinarily interesting. It will doubtless not only prove interesting but will be more extensive than many realize.

Next Tuesday is Union county day at Seattle. There are a number of our people who are already there in anticipation of the event and others will leave tonight and tomorrow. Mr. J. B. Eaton was chosen at the meeting of the pioneers at Imbler, Thursday, to represent them and she will leave this evening to assist Mrs. Ivanhoe our enthusiastic and energetic hostess who has tried faithfully to have a good representation from this county on this occasion and her efforts will not be fruitless.

This year will be almost one continual year of special rates for those visiting the Pacific coast. The Harriman system have announced that it will continue the fall rates as in former years during September and October, thus with the rates to Seattle fair and the spring rates, takes in the greater portion of the year. As a result it is estimated that 65,000 people came to the coast during the spring, these remained, thousands are coming now but many of these are visiting the coast for the time on a general tour of inspection.
