The board of managers of the irrigation project are recipients of deserved commendation for the rapid and satisfactory results so far obtained in securing the title to the reservoir site.

With two railroads fighting for the chance to enter the central portion of the state there is every reason to believe that the large tract of land in the United States today with transportation facilities will not be many years longer.

From a weather stand point it has not been sufficiently warm yet this year to justify an excuse to go to the mountains. However, a few days outing permits of a change from the everyday walks of life that is enjoyed by all who can.

This is the last year for La Grande to give heed to the usual proclamation to boil the drinking water. When the Beaver Creek is completed we will have a perpetual water supply that cannot be excelled and equalled by few cities in the Northwest.

Edris Nomination Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—The senate today confirmed the nomination of W. P. Edris as post master of Spokane.

SOCIETY.

The Baptist Home Missionary Society will meet Wednesday afternoon, 2 p. m., at the home of Mrs. J. E. Stevenson on N. avenue. All are cordially invited.

Harvesting Delayed.

The light rain which fell in the end of the county and the heavy downpour which soaked Elgin this morning, put a short hitch in harvesting, but it is evident that it will be resumed tomorrow.
