SOCIETY.

A miscellaneous surprise shower was last evening tendered Miss Laura Green at the home of her parents, 1311 N. avenue, in anticipation of her coming marriage to Reuben E. Willis of Corvallis. Costly presents rained down on the unsuspecting bride-to-be at a late hour in the evening, and informal pastime occupied the evening hours. Light refreshments consisting of three-of-a-kind sherbet, cake and coffee brought to a close one of the most enjoyable ante-nuptial affairs in the city this summer. On account of the surprise nature of the event, no house decorations were attempted. Those present at the extremely pleasant shower, were: Mesdames Maude Hanson, F. H. Green and A. W. Nelson; Misses Nora Fritts,

Ivy Long, Justine Clarke, Gertrude Ralston, Lulu Gulling, Frances Masee, Olive Masee and Lulu Dawson.

Good Clothes

Men, as well as women, like to be well dressed, but many of them don't know how to go about it. The majority of clothing stores can't help them much, either—they clothe them, 'tis true—but they certainly don't dress them.

And That's Where This Store comes in!

We dress men well—we spare no pains to do it. Clothes quality, these days, counts for as much as price in the way of an inducement, when asking for patronage. EXCLUSIVENESS AND EXCELLENCE IN HATS AND HABERDASHERY.

If you care for clothes excellence, Sir, come here!
