The wise men of today are those who on the slightest trouble with their eye sight have that trouble investigated by a reputable optician.

Many an man wearing glasses today could have had his trouble remedied by the wearing of glasses for a short period—if he attended to it in time.

CHORUS IS SELECTED

ACTIVE PREPARATION FOR VISIT TO LA GRANDE.

Big Task to Pick Voices For Mormon
Tabernacle Choir.

SALT LAKE, July 28.—(Special)—Prof. Evan Stephens has at last concluded the onerous task of selecting the 200 voices which are to go to Seattle next month, and from which a chorus of mixed voices of not less than 75 and not over 125 are to compete for the $1,000 prize given by the exposition management. Rehearsals, three and four nights weekly, have been held for the three past weeks.

The contest choruses are of the highest rank, each in its own style, and difficulties abound in each. The big Mendelssohn classic has its strong, massive effects, almost oriental in its climaxes and sudden transpositions, while Protheroe's part song is so dainty and tender that nothing but a blending of the natural yet most artistic expression and feeling will do it any justice what ever.

Both are now memorized by most of the singers, giving the conductor a command of the work impossible when vocalists are book-bound.

The first opportunity to hear the chorus selected will be at the series of grand concerts which will be given at the tabernacle during G. A. R. week, beginning August 9. There will be four concerts, with changes of program each night. The first will be given Monday night, and the other three will be rendered Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings.

Through courtesy of the choir, G. A. R. veterans will be given complimentary tickets to these concerts, but the general public will not be admitted free, for the "sinews of war" are required to make the contemplated concert tour of the northwest possible. Provided each of the five concerts which will be given respectively in Boise, La Grande, Portland, Tacoma and Seattle, go to "standing $10,000 in order to pay expenses to room," the choir will still need about and from Seattle.
