

Up-to-date Hats, $3.00 for 2.00

One Week Only. See Our Windows

ANDREWS & BERRY

PASTIME THEATRE

PASTIME STOCK CO.

TONIGHT---"Always On Time."

Sunday Night---"Ten Nights in a Barroom" with Mr. S. M. Curtis as "Joe Morgan."

MATINEE, Saturday, 2:30

PRICES---Evenings, 25c. Matinee 10 and 20 cents.

Chief Rayburn returned this morning from Spokane and Coeur D'Alene. Albert Woodell of Summerville, is visiting his father at Asotin, this week.

Miss F. I. Roberts, publisher of the North Powder News, is registered at the Foley.

Mr. and Mrs. Neri Ackles returned this morning from Portland where they have been visiting for several days.

L. A. Pickler this morning began the work of surveying and platting for the Federal building site for the government.

Mrs. Sheppard, the noted temperance lecturer who has been spending a few days in the city left this morning for Weiser.

Engineer L. J. Given returned this morning from Spokane where he placed his name in the box which secures a chance to draw a farm.

Miss Gertrude Eakin, who is here from Salem visiting friends in the county, left this morning for Union to remain a few days with friends.

Dr. McMillan returned this morning from Spokane where he is bent on becoming a genuine farmer. This evening Dr. and Mrs. McMillan leave for a trip to Portland and Spokane.

Archie Bacon returned this morning from Spokane and other points required to take a chance in all three of the land drawings. He states the crowds are so great in Spokane that it is difficult to secure rooms.

Miss Juliet Cooper, who has been the guest of friends in La Grande returned to Pendleton last evening. She met with an accident while horseback riding and returned with a badly battered nose.—Pendleton E. O.

Mrs. James Wilson of North Powder is here visiting her daughter Mrs. W. A. Wade, 1511 Adams avenue. She will remain about two weeks.

Workmen are busy today repairing the depot platform by replacing plank that were broken or decayed.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Rinehart of Imbler, who were recently married at Elgin, returned this morning from a wedding junket through Walla Walla, and coast points. They left on the morning train for their future home in Imbler.

Dr. W. D. McMillan
Painless Dentistry
La Grande National Bank Bldg.
Both Phones

George Currey Jr., Loy Wissler and Wilbur Jay, who last Monday left for the wilds of upper Minam to spend a week fishing, came home last evening, tired of body and depressed in spirits. The trip was an unfortunate one for the heavy rains swelled the streams to abnormal height and fishing was an impossibility. One pleasant day marked the trip, and that was the day they made their return trip.

Ed Makinson who five years ago quit answering railroad signals to lead the simple life is in from his farm in Pine valley, on his way to Seattle via Spokane where he will take a chance in the land drawing. Mr. Makinson lives within a few miles of Homestead and Copperfield, where the Snake river road is being constructed, also the Ox Bow power plant where 500 men are now employed.

Mr. Jacob Vorhees, state organizer of the Grange, spent last night as the guest of C. D. Hoffman, and went on to his home in Woodburn this morning. Mr. Vorhees has spent the last two months traveling through Michigan, Indiana, Iowa, Virginia, and was

In fact all over the middle west. He says that no place since he left home has looked so good to him as old Grande Ronde.

Dale Murray, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murray, who was severely burned at a camp fire at the city park grounds recently, is getting along nicely. His burns were dressed today by Doctor Hall, who found the frightful burns are healing very satisfactorily.

Burke Williams, a bookkeeper in the Merchants bank at Eugen, is here visiting friends for a few days.

Miss McLaren, for six years a missionary in Turkey, will speak in the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

F. L. Lilly of the Lilly Hardware company is able to be out a short period at a time today, following an acute attack of sickness yesterday.

Mrs. Emma Kirkpatrick and her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Heulst of northern Washington, who is her guest were up from Island City this afternoon calling on friends.

L. S. Kersay and family, W. Coughanour and family, James Wilson and family, Miss Louise Leon Grant Dalton and family, all of North Powder, left last night for the Sattle fair, and Chas Jacobson and family and Hon. Herman Rotchld, leave this evening to join their fellow townfolk.

H. S. Massee of the Blue Mountain creamery is in Coeur D'Alene filing on government land.

The Kaffe Klatch will meet at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Conkey, tomorrow afternoon.

Fair tonight and warmer, fair Friday, are the weather predictions today.

F. S. Ivanhoe, district attorney, is home from Enterprise, where a special term of court was held. He returned this afternoon.

Ed Coolidge returned today from Rondowa where he transacted business and spent a few hours fishing.

Circuit Judge J. W. Knowles will return from Enterprise tomorrow.

E. S. McComas, who is living in Elgin, came in on the afternoon train.

Two black bears came in on the Wallowa train from Joseph they will be shipped to Buffalo, New York.

Sheriff Marvin is in the city on the way to Salem where he is taking Arthur Hulse, the self confessed horse thief.

J. H. Minnaugh of Wallowa, came in this afternoon. He states that work on the new big saw mill is progressing rapidly.

H. P. Lewis, who has been writing New York Life insurance for the past ten days in Wallowa, has returned.

Architect C. R. Thornton returned from Enterprise this afternoon where he has been several days looking after the construction of several buildings which is under his supervision.

L. C. Henderson who several years ago was foreman on the Evening Observer, but now a farmer near Enterprise, came out this afternoon accompanied by his brother, W. H. Henderson, who is a manual training teacher in the public schools of Springfield, Illinois, who is out to see our coast. They are both en route to Keneswick, where their brother Scott is publishing the Reporter.

PLUMS

TOMATOES

WATERMELONS

CANTALOUPS

City Grocery and Bakery,

E. POLACK, Prop.

Bell Phone, Main 75 Independent 241

GEORGE PALMER, President C. S. WILLIAMS, 2nd Asst Cashier.
F. J. HOLMES, Vice-President W. H. BRENHOLTS, Asst. Cashier
F. L. MEYERS, Cashier.

La Grande National Bank

Of La Grande Oregon

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $170,000

UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY

DIRECTORS

M. Berry J. D. Matheson F. J. Holmes F. M. Brykit
C. C. Pennington F. L. Meyers Geo. L. Cleaver,
W. L. Brenholts George Palmer

Good Clothes

Men, as well as women, like to be well dressed, but many of them don't know how to go about it.

The majority of clothing stores can't help them much, either—they clothe them, 'tis true—but they certainly don't dress them.

And That's Where This Store comes in!

We dress men well—we spare no pains to do it. Clothes quality, these days, counts for as much as price in the way of an inducement, when asking for patronage. EXCLUSIVENESS AND EXCELLENCE IN HATS AND HABERDASHERY.

If you care for clothes excellence, Sir, come here!

Ash Brothers

Clothes of Quality

SUMMER FICTION,

REFERENCE BOOKS,

RAILROAD BOOKS,

DICTIONARIES, BIBLES.

--AT--

FERGUSONS

"Where Nothing is Too Much Trouble"