BULL SECURES BEET PULP

Jeff Bull has again secured a contract for consumption of beet pulp this winter, and will feed about 450 head of cattle at the factory. He has teams and men ready to haul straw and hay just as soon as threshing commences, and will consume about 400 tons during the feeding season. The straw will be used first and the hay later.

This pulp is good fattening stuff, and cattle raisers are always anxious to get the contract for the consumption of it.

GOOD PLAY ON TONIGHT

At the Pastime tonight the stock company will be seen in Milton Nobles' romantic drama in four acts and thirteen scenes entitled "The Phoenix." The play will be found one of the most interesting and will be presented by a cast thoroughly competent. The piece is produced under the personal direction of S. M. Curtis, who will be seen in the role of "Gerald Gray," Carl De Vere, the well known actor will amuse all by his clever impersonation of "Masirs" and Miss Natino who is cast for the part of "Blanch, the Grange Girl," will have a delightful role. Mr. Russel as "Jack Furbish" and Mr. Leonard as "Lester Blake" with Miss Tucker as "Kitty Lorraine," Mr. Gray as "Mike O'Connor" and "Mike Pigeon" will fill up a cast that will delight all who attend.

The play is on for three nights and will be followed the last half of the week by the sterling English drama, "Mable Heath."

YEGMEN SHOOT AT TRAIN CREW.

 box cars, several shots were fired. One punctured the outer clothing worn by McShean and Hanford who had also come up ahead, experienced the sensation of having a bullet whiz by his head.

The train was slowed down, but before Huron, the next station, was reached, the men had evidently dropped off the train.

At Pendleton yesterday several men were arrested for selling men and ladies' wearing apparel. The officials at La Grande were notified and today Chief of Police Rayburn and other officials went to Pendleton where the men are now under arrest and will be brought back tonight.

It is possible that the suit sold at Pendleton may be the one taken from the Blue Mountain house Thursday night. It will be a difficult matter, according to officials, to identify the yegmen who did the shooting stunt at Huron, as the fellows who did the holdup act here Friday night. A clear case exists relative to the shooting, it seems.

AUTO PARTY ARRIVES

Two Ford cars, carrying camp equipment, and the wife and children of the owner, a man named Powell, reached La Grande this afternoon, being 22 days out of a Southern Colorado town. They are bound for Medford, and are making the trip by slow degrees. A broken spring is the most serious accident that they have met with as yet.

They camp wherever night overtakes them, and seem to enjoy the trip. Several small girls are with the party.

ARE INVITED TO SEATTLE

LOCAL BAND INVITED TO BAND CONCERT.

Overtures Familiar to Band Here To Be Rendered.

An invitation has been received by Manager C. T. Bacon of the Band here to participate in the Northwest Band Concert at Seattle on September 6th. The prizes to be awarded are in the A class, first prize $50. Second prize $350. In the B class, first prize, $320 and second prize $220. The overtures to be rendered are "William Tell" and "The Poet and the Peasant." These are familiar pieces to the band here and they would undoubtedly make a showing. It has not been decided whether they will attend or not.

GUN EXPLODES ACCIDENTALLY

Acting Poundmaster Tiffany this afternoon escaped instant death by a narrow margin, when he was taking a cow to pasture on the North side. He had scooped, during his work, to pick an object off the ground, and while in the bent over posture, his revolver fell from its holster and on striking the ground, exploded. The bullet whizzed up in the air under his arm, passing at just close proximity. A few inches deviation on any way or the other, would have meant instant death.
