LIGHT COURT THIS MONTH

One of the lightest dockets in several months greeted the county court when it convened this morning for the regular monthly transaction of business in connection with the county. A road petition today was the chief matters of interest from a public standpoint, as the public cares but little for routine allowance of minor and regular bills.

L. Stillwell et al, are the petitioners and want a road through the Al. Good farm and north through others.
Act on Jail Friday.

Friday, the last day of the regular session, the new county jail will be completed and the county court will at that time act on that piece of workmanship.

Last Time Tonight.

Tonight will see the last performance of the clever play, "The Phoenix" by the stock company at the Pastime theatre. The play has proven one of the most pleasing ones yet presented, and indications point to a crowded house. Tomorrow night the same cast will be seen in the five act English pastoral drama "Mable Heath." This is recommended by the management as one of the most pleasing and artistic dramatic performances ever presented here. "Mable Heath" will have three performances, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

THE THE BEST PLACE

Without a doubt the best place to get all kinds of vegetables, strawberries, cherries, oranges, bananas and lemons, is at the Geddes Grocery, they have the best and the freshest; and should you want nice crisp sweet or sour pickles, just call them up; and don't forget that 25c coffee, it takes the place of your 40c coffee. Just a shipment of Swifts ham and bacon.
