Critics Say
The wise men of today are those who on the slightest trouble with their eye sight have that trouble investigated by a reputable optician.
Many an man wearing glasses today could have had his trouble remedied by the wearing of glasses for a short period—if he attended to it in time.

SENSATION IN WILL CASE

Startling and sensational in the extreme are the findings of fact in the Warner-Young contest case, signed by Judge Gilliland, says the Pendleton E. O.

After holding that the famous mysterious "fourth" will was not the last will and testament of J. W. Young, the court finds that the "pretended will was made, forged and executed at some time after the death of James W. Young, by and through the connivance and procurement of Mabel Warner.

"And that S. V. Knox, one of the pretended subscribing witnesses to the said will and one Della Stacey, who pretended that she saw Young and Louis Ragel, sign the said document, have each and all conspired together with the said Mabel Warner, to cheat and defraud the contestants out of the property of the said J. W. Young, deceased, by means of said false, fraudulent and forged will and by means of false and perjured testimony."

It is also declared in the findings of fact that Mrs. Warner introduced in evidence a forged letter, purporting to have been written to Clara Young by J. W. Young and also a forged memorandum of contract.

It is further charged that while the "first" will to the estate of James W. Young was in possession of Mabel Warner, her attorneys and her experts, the exhibit had been "altered, changed and tampered with."

The judge also signed the decree this afternoon. This simply declares that the will is forged and that it was never executed by Young and is therefore not entitled to probate.
